
Black Lives Matter Timeline

8/15/2014: Ferguson police chief releases surveillance video and dispatches of the robbery Brown is accused of

8/18/2014: Governor Nixon releases the National Guard in Ferguson

8/20/2014: Attorney General Eric Holder visits Ferguson

8/25/2014: Michael Brown is buried

9/16/2014: Wilson testifies in front of a grand jury

10/8/2014: Vonderitt D. Myers Jr. is killed by the St. Louis police

10/21/2014: Governor Nixon announces his plan to create the Ferguson Commission

11/16/2014: Hundreds of protestors stay a die in to symbol the 100 days that have passed since the death of Brown

11/22/2014: 12-year-old Tamir Rice is killed in a playground by a police officer while holding a toy gun

8/16/2014: Ferguson is declared to be in a state of emergency by McCaskill

8/19/2014: Donovan announces the Garner case will go to a grand jury, saying that after reviewing the medical examiner's findings

8/23/2014: More than 2,500 people march through Staten Island to protest Garner's death.

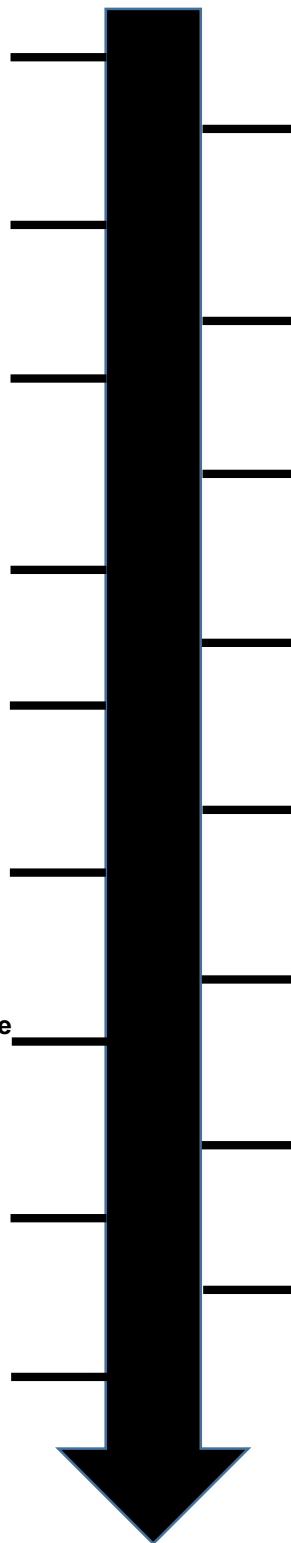

8/30/2014: Protests in St. Louis stop traffic for 4 1/2 hours as a symbolic tribute to the amount of time Brown spent lying in the

9/24/2014: A grand jury rules there will be no indictment of Darren Wilson in the death of John Crawford

10/11/2014: Thousands march for police reform and an indictment on Darren Wilson in St. Louis

10/26/2014: Myers Jr. is buried

11/20/2014: Akai Gurley is killed by a rookie police officer in NYC

11/24/2014: The grand jury decides not to indict Darren Wilson for the death of Michael Brown

11/25/2014: Thousands of protestors march to Times Square following the release of the verdict

11/26/2014: LA: Protestors shutdown the 101 in LA

11/26/2014: About 200 members of the Black Youth Project staged a sit-in outside Mayor Rahm Emanuel's office Tuesday afternoon.

11/30/2014: St. Louis Rams participate in a one the field protest

12/3/2014: A grand jury decides not to indict Officer Daniel Pantaleo for the death of Eric Garner

12/3/2014: Eric Holder announces a full federal investigation on the death of Eric Garner

12/4/2014: Hashtag activists create the hashtag #AliveWhileBlack in response to the verdict in the Garner case

11/25/2014: Thousands of protestors march to the DOJ in DC following the release of the verdict

11/25/2014: Stand up to racism and the London Black Revolution organize a protest outside of the London Embassy

11/26/2014: Thousands of Protestors continue to march through Manhattan for the next 24 hours

11/28/2014: Thousands of activists launch #blackoutblackfriday, shutting down malls and highways across the country

12/1/2014: US House Reps stand in solidarity symbolizing "Hand Up, Don't Shoot" on the house floor

12/3/2014: Hundreds of Protests break out across the city in support of Eric Garner

12/4/2014: Thousands of Protestors in NYC block traffic, shutdown Manhattan and the Brooklyn Bridge

12/6/2014: #BlackBrunch Protestors disrupt dinners in NYC

