BASKETBALL TEAM WINS FIRST GAME
Marines Meet Defeat in Hard-Fought Court Battle

The Georgetown University baskerettes started the season successfully Saturday evening by defeating the Quantico Marines 22 to 17 in a hard fought, cleanly played exhibition. The Marines were in the pink of condition and played a defensive game that was a puzzle to the Hilltoppers for the first few minutes of play. The five-man defensive system of the Quantico boys was not fathomed until nearly ten minutes had elapsed, and even then the weavers of the Blue and Gray had a hard time caging the ball. Zazalli shone brilliantly in shooting from the free-throw line and dropped one through the hoop almost from the middle of the floor. The half ended with the score 8 to 4, Marines on the long end.

In the second half the Hilltop quintet showed new life and baskets by Byrne, Carney and Sweeney, with four free tosses by Zazalli made things much brighter from a Georgetown viewpoint. However, the Quantico boys were not able to put the ball through the hoops for a single tally. They did, however, succeed in making nine points from free tries. Sanford, who shot the fouls, was exceptionally good, making 13 out of 15 attempts.

Zazalli and Carney played the prominent part for the Hilltoppers and gave a good account of themselves throughout the entire contest. Ryan, who replaced Flavin at right forward when that star was injured, showed all the earmarks of being a comer. He played a fine defensive game and his passing was a revelation. Sweeney put real pep into proceedings when he was injected into the contest and showed a fine combination of skill and knowledge of the court game that will stand him in good stead later in the season. Dufour and O'Keefe, who replaced Byrne at different times of the game, went well and showed indications of making strong bids for permanent berths in the five.

Tomorrow the fast Lafayette five will be entertained at Ryan "gym." They have a very fine club and will furnish plenty of opposition for the Hilltoppers. George Washington is listed for the Saturday afternoon. This game promises to be one of the best of the year as this quintet is playing in unprecedented form.

JUNIORS TO GIVE PROM ON FEB. 2
Arrangements Are Practically Completed for Premier Function.

It has been decided by the Junior Committee to hold the annual Prom, the greatest social event of the college year, at the New Washington City Club, Saturday evening, February 2. The Juniors have made great efforts to make this affair unsurpassed by Proms of past years. The New Washington City Club is well fitted for the occasion. It has been the scene of all the prominent events of Washington this year. Paul Whiteman's Collegians, of "Rendezvous" and "Palais Royal" fame, have been secured to render their music from 9 until 2. The committee has gone to considerable expense to secure the appearance of these noted musicians. Arrangements have been made with "Skillcraft, Inc.," of Philadelphia, for manufacturing and designing original favors, which will in themselves be one of the features of the evening. Between the hours of 12 and 2 an elaborate supper will be served in the club's well-appointed dining-room. The Junior Prom Committee consists of Mr. John H. Daly of Georgia, chairman; Mr. Edward Snell of Massachusetts, Mr. William Downey of Massachusetts, Mr. John Goodwin of New York and Mr. Paul Florence of Illinois.

LAW CLASSES HOLD SMOKERS
Seniors and Juniors Hold Socials. Senator King Speaks at Former Event.

The Senior class of the Law Department of the University of the District of Columbia held one of the most successful socials in their history recently when a smoker was conducted at Wardman Park Hotel. Practically every member of the class was in attendance and the long program of entertainments was enjoyed by all.

One of the highlights of the evening was an address given by United States Senator William H. King of Utah. Other speakers were Congressman Vincent Brennan of Michigan, Professors Fegan, O'Donoghue, Boyd, Alexander and Flamery of the Law School, and Class President A. J. Kane.

About 150 were in attendance at the smoker conducted recently by the Junior class at the Law Department. Mr. Rudolph F. Johnson presided and Mr. John S. White, chairman of the entertainment committee in charge, was toastmaster.

Supper was served, after which the usual post-prandial exercises were in order and were enjoyed while huge clouds of smoke helped to add to the occasion's environment. Through the courtesy of Mr. Jacob D. Burger of the Cleveland quota of the Endowment Association, the members were each presented with Orlando pipes.

CLEVELAND ALUMNI ACTIVE IN DRIVE

During the Christmas holidays the Georgetown Alumni Association of Cleveland held their annual banquet at the University Club of Cleveland. A large gathering of alumni and undergraduates from northern Ohio attended.

Father Toolehy, S. J., of the College, was the guest of honor, and addressed the gathering on the Endowment Fund for greater Georgetown. Mr. Bernard Brady, president of the association, responded, and pledged the support of the Cleveland chapter. Plans for raising the Cleveland quota of the Endowment Fund were discussed. The annual election of officers was held, resulting in the re-election of Mr. Bernard Brady as president.

Thirty Candidates Strive For Positions on the Team.

Freshman basketball started with a rush Monday afternoon when nearly 30 enthusiasts of the court game answered the call for freshmen and arrangements have been made whereby the frosh candidates will have an opportunity to work out in the gymnasium three days a week and get plenty of practice in scrimmage several days a week. A schedule has been arranged and the boys will have plenty of action for the whole season. The season will open Saturday night when the 26 court artists will engage in a tussle with the George Washington five as a preliminary to the varsity-G. W. entertainment. The Washington frosh are reputed to be a factor in college basketball and their skill in handling the ball will have their hands full in trying to take them into camp.

Intensive work on the part of the candidates will be in order this week as only two days remain before the first contest. A team will have to be picked and whipped into shape for the opening number on the Freshmen list. The tentative schedule follows:

THE HOYA

WEEKLY LECTURES RESUMED.

we use them in our mental operations. The imagination, he said, was mainly involved in so-called mental telepathy and second sight. All experiments along this line go to show that there is no communication from mind to mind directly but through the medium of the imagination.

In developing his talk further he explained particular experiments which were illustrated by special charts and suggested various explanations given. None, he said, really explain this strange phenomenon. Second Sight was discussed at some length; Father Berckett described it as "a power of the mind to perceive consciously as if with the senses, occurrences of everyday life many hours and sometimes months in advance as well as the future." The Hebrides Islands, the Highlands of Scotland, and certain sections of Westphalia are the real homes, the Reverend lecturer informed, of the wonderfully gifted people who possess second sight. They see future deaths, fires of houses and even cities, funeral processions, sometimes armed with a marching band, and accidents. In concluding his talk Father Burkett gave a very interesting and dramatic account of communication through the medium of wireless telegraphy.

Next Monday afternoon the second lecture of the 1923 series will be given by the Reverend John J. Tooley, S. J. The subject of Father Tooley's discourse will be, "Literature; a Reflection of Human Life."

GEORGETOWN AWARDED BASEBALL TROPHY

Veterans' Athletic Association Confers Honor on Baseball Champions of 1922.

The Veteran Athletic Association of Philadelphia has awarded the baseball cup to the Georgetown University baseball team for the fine record they established in baseball last year. Georgetown won 29 consecutive victories and did not suffer defeat once during the entire season of inter-collegiate ball. The Veterans' Association is an organization established in 1905 for the promotion of better athletics and each year awards cups to the representative teams of the country. All branches of athletics are taken into consideration and each team that establishes a record is presented with the cup, one of the highest honors that can be conferred by the association.

In 1921 Lafayette was awarded the cup for football and for the season of 1922 the honor was conferred on Prince ton. In 1922 Tilden was recognized as the tennis champion of the country and was given a cup, as was Hoover, who won the single skulls championship for the year.

The presentation of the cup will take place at Philadelphia on January 30. There will be a Georgetown representative at Philadelphia when the presentation is made. Judge Eugene C. Bonnelli, president of the organization and will personally award the trophy.

FIRST ANNUAL PRIZE LAW DEBATE HELD

Negative Wins Decision Upon Interesting Question Before Large Audience.

The veto power of the Supreme Court of the United States was upheld by the decision of the judges of the first prize debate at Georgetown University Law School.

The debate, the first of the season, was an auspicious opening. The newly formed Georgetown Law School Orchestra rendered several selections, which were heartily accepted by the spectators.

There were nine members playing in the orchestra. Mr. Emmett Daly, '24, of Montana, is the leader. The following men composed the orchestra: Messrs. Daly, Garrity, Levin, Abrahms, Gates, Johnson, Hauschlld, Harrington, and Fitzgerald.

The question for the debate was, "Resolved, That the Constitution of the United States be amended so as to empower Congress, by a two-thirds vote, to set aside any decision of the Supreme Court of the United States declaring an Act of Congress unconstitutional."

The affirmative was upheld by the Senior Debating Society team, composed of Mr. John S. White, '25, of Pennsylvania, and Mr. John F. Victory, '25, of the District of Columbia. Mr. White proved that under the present conditions the Supreme Court of the United States in deciding the constitutionality of an Act of Congress does so according to its belief of the intention of the framers of the Constitution as expressed within the four corners of the Constitution. He discussed the decisions in the Yazo Income Tax Case, the Legal Tender Case, and the recent Child Labor Case, and pointed out that the will of the people of the United States, as a whole, was not observed by the Supreme Court. Thereby warranting a change.

Mr. John F. Victory, the second speaker of the affirmative, endeavored to prove that the plan advocated was rational, progressive, and constructive, and that the people's interests would be better served, and our great American plan of government would be strengthened so as to endure against the vicious attacks of the radicals, who are gaining strength in their fight against the judicial oligarchy.

The negative was upheld by the Junior-Freshman Debating Society team, composed of Mr. Irvin I. Goldstein, '25, of the District of Columbia, and Mr. Albert J. Cain, '25, of Louisiana. Mr. Goldstein proved that the amendment if enacted would be destructive to our good. That the people would be deprived of the protection of the Constitution. And that the proposed amendment would deprive the States of their sovereign powers.

Mr. Cain proved that the Constitution as adopted in 1787 gave the Supreme Court the power to declare Acts of Congress unconstitutional. The attacks on this right of the Supreme Court are not new. It was attacked at different times between 1789 and 1803, but it still survives. The decisions of Marbury vs. Madison and McCulloch vs. Maryland were enforcements of the Constitution: the former compelled the executive to perform its ministerial duties outlined in the Constitution; the latter defended the right of Congress to certain implied powers within the letter and spirit of the Constitution.

The Constitution is and must be regarded by the judges as a fundamental law, and it is the duty of the judges to interpret it and all laws in pursuance with it. Without this there is an irreconcilable variance between the two. The Constitution representing the will of the people must be preferred to the statute, the will of their agents.

FORMER G. U. PROF. LEADS RELIEF MISSION

Rev. Edmund Walsh Leads Organization to Relieve Suffering in Soviet Russia.

Upper classics and graduates of Georgetown will be interested in the following clipping taken from a leading Catholic publication:

Moscow, Dec. 28.—The Rev. Edmund Walsh, head of the Catholic mission which has been cooperating for some months with the American Relief Administration in its feeding operations in Russia, has been notified by Cardinal Gasparri, Papal Secretary of State in Rome, that Pape Pius XI. has acceded to the request of the Soviet Government for a Catholic mission to conduct feeding in Orenburg province.

The Rev. Dr. Walsh has arranged for a feeding program caring for 20,000 persons in the Orenburg district, which will be started as soon as possible and which will bring the operations of the Catholic mission up to a total of 70,000 persons. For its program, the Catholic mission to date has spent more than two hundred thousand dollars.

The cabalgism to Dr. Walsh also stated that the Pope has made a personal gift of a million lire for medical supplies with which the Catholic mission will cooperate in the A. R. A. program of medical assistance and inoculation against the spread of epidemic diseases.

The judges decided that the affirmative had failed to prove their proposition and that the negative had upheld their proposition, and therefore they awarded the debate to the negative team.

The judges also decided that Mr. Cain, second speaker of the negative, was the best speaker of the evening. Mr. Cain is an able speaker, with a pleasing presence, a convincing delivery, and logical reasoning, and his selection won the approval of the audience.

Mr. J. G. Sullivan, '23, of Iowa, president of the Senior Debating Society, presided over the debate.

Rear Admiral David Potter, S. C., U. S. Navy, the chairman of the judges, rendered the decision of the judges in a very interesting manner. The other judges were Hon. H. V. Speelman, Register of the Treasury; Mr. James J. Killroy, Captain William A. Rounds, U. S. A., and Professor Charles W. Tooke, of the Law School.

The attendance was very large for the first debate. There were over three hundred present, which augurs well for the attendance at future debates.

While the judges were deliberating, Mr. Emmett Daly entertained the audience with some vocal selections.

Mr. George E. Beechwood, '24, of Kansas, president of the Junior-Freshman Debating Society, acted as chairman of the reception committee, which was composed of the following members of the Junior Society: Messrs. Fillen, Quinn, Dale, and Buckley, of the Class of '24; Messrs. Bacon, Foester, Mervin, Blake, Gapos, Dowd, Donhee, Sullivan, Colindine, Riley, Barton, and Mohoney, of the Class of '25.
We note with sorrow the passing of the father of Brian J. Ducey, Foreign Service representative of The Hoy, and in his great be-reavement we wish to extend our pro-found sympathy and genuine re-gret.

ANOTHER ACCOMPLISH-MENT.

Track at Georgetown begins in earnest on Saturday night when the world's rec-ord holding relay team makes its first appearance this year in New York City where it is scheduled to compete with Princeton and Columbia. The schedule for the present year which was recently completed is the best in the his-tory of the University and compares fa-vorably with any in the country.

We feel that from the present outlook our representatives on the boards and cinders will accomplish, even bigger things than last year when the Blue and Gray gained country-wide prominence. The much-talked-of track team is now being built under the direction of Brother Vergil Golden and Coach John D. O'Reilly and is expected to be finished shortly.

The track "game," so-called, is today probably enjoying the heyday of its career. There is no reason we can see why it shouldn't always be one of the headliners of sport. For there is no activity that calls for so much from the individual as track. Constant training, mental as well as physical, is required and the average young man in this sport isn't a short one. One has to be a top-notch to be a real track man. It's a severe test and it will be necessary to increase the selling each week at ten cents per copy and it will be necessary to increase the cost to fifteen cents per issue. The new fee for the entire year begins June 1st. The Athletic Board has expressed its desire to continue the holding medley relay team makes its first appearance this year in New York City where it is scheduled to compete with Princeton and Columbia, and the various changes effective at this time of the year, The Hoy announces a change in its policy in regard to the distribution of the paper at the Law and Foreign Service Departments of the University.

The institution of the idea of dis tributing Hoyas each week at these de partments was attended with much en joyment on our part, for The Hoy never met with such a hearty response and genuine enthusiasm as it was met by the students at the school. Circum stances make it impossible to continue...
Charles G. Nauert, graduate of the Law School, was recently elected county judge of Adams County, in the State of Illinois. According to the newspapers and periodicals, he is the youngest judge ever elected in a court of record in that state, and he is the only Republican judge elected in Adams County in the last forty years. His opponent was a man who practiced law in the county for over thirty years. Mr. Nauert was almost the only Republican in the county elected to office.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Amy Megargee, of Beranton, Pa., announce the birth of a daughter, Frances Toomey Megargee. Mr. Megargee is a former member of the class of 1918.

Rev. Francis T. Kanaley '01, the superintendent of the parochial schools of Buffalo, died last December, and was buried from St. Teresa's Church, Buffalo, N. Y.

Joseph C. Breitenstein, graduate of the Law School, and assistant United States attorney for the Northern District of Ohio since 1915, announces his resignation as district attorney. Mr. Breitenstein will engage in general law practice.

John S. Miller of Los Angeles, a graduate of the Medical School of the class of 1865, died at Peoria, Ill., from pneumonia.

Thomas Lynn Sutton, Zanesville, Ohio, a former Georgetown student, died at Columbus, Ohio, from a fractured skull, received in an automobile accident.

Dr. Sutton served in the Navy during the World War, and was a member of the staff of the Good Samaritan and Bethesda hospitals.

Dr. George Barrie, M. D. '95, died suddenly last October. Dr. Barrie was formerly an associate professor of surgery at the Medical School, a member of the American Society for the Advancement of Science, and of the New York Academy of Medicine. He was also surgeon to the New York City, Children's, and Post-Graduate Hospitals, and the Hospital for the Relief of Ruptured and Crippled.

J. W. Shaefler, M. D., a former Georgetown student, has his new offices at 711 Chapman Building, Los Angeles, Calif.

John M. Maloney, M. D. '07, died recently of pneumonia, at his home in Springfield. Dr. Maloney distinguished himself as a baseball player while attending the University, being a famous catcher on the varsity nine. Dr. Maloney was a well-known physician in Springfield, and secretary of the staff of Mercy Hospital.

Dr. Joseph Byron Moore, a member of the class of 1871 of the Medical School, died October 27, at the age of 92.

William V. Marmion, A. M. '83, died recently at the age of 82, following a long illness. Dr. Marmion served as surgeon in the Navy on the flagship Monongahela in 1866.

Dr. Donnelly, of the Medical School, has gone to Gloversville, N. Y.

Dr. J. Cogan, of the Dental School, is now located at 539 East Fourth Street, Tucson, Ariz.

INDOOR TRACK SEASON STARTS AS RELAY TEAM LEAVES FOR NEW YORK

Time Trials Held Last Saturday Point to Victory at Fordham Meet

Next Saturday night Georgetown opens her 1923 track season when a relay team representing the University will compete in a medley relay race at the Fordham College games in New York. Prospects of winning the race are bright, in view of the excellent material available for each distance. In order to obtain a line on the men Coach O'Reilly put those who have been in practice since the Christmas holidays through time trials last Saturday afternoon on Varsity Field. All distances were run as races, all of which, save the mile, were close enough to furnish thrills. The times turned in were excellent considering the condition of the cinder track, due to recent frosts.

In the mile, Jimmy Connolly had things to himself, finishing a fast mile in strong fashion, holding a comfortable lead over Helme.

George Marsters, who has been handicapped by a lame arch since the fall, practiced twice during the past week, but that was sufficient to condition the star half-miler with the result that he crossed the line first in his specialty. Paul Herlihy, South Atlantic quarter miler champion, who has been running with the half miler of late, finished a close second to Marsters.

The first four quarter milers finished with scarcely a yard between them in the following order: Kinnaly, Geegan, Ansbro, and Plansky.

The new board track which is expected to be completed soon will be a great help toward developing the men. At present the team is handicapped whichever way it turns for a place in which to practice. A board track will be the ideal medium between the short board stretch in Healy basement and the muddy cinder path on Varsity Field.
TEAM TO MAKE TRIP NORTH IN FEBRUARY

Blue and Gray to Meet Rochester, Buffalo, and Canisius.

The road schedule for the Hilltop basketers has been fully completed. The first team to be met on an out-of-town court will be the Middies at the Naval Academy in Annapolis on January 27. After this the quintette will return to engage the George Washington University team in a second game, to be played in Ryan Gymnasium on January 29. Georgetown twice triumphed over George Washington last year.

The University of Rochester will be the first opponent to meet the Hilltoppers on their jaunt. The fast aggregation that will uphold the colors of Rochester will encounter an equally speedy combination, and the outcome promises to be close. From Rochester the team moves on to Buffalo to remain two days. On February 1 the University of Buffalo is met, and on the 2nd the Georgetown five will face a real test when they play Canisius College. Canisius is well known in the Mid-West.

With this schedule ahead of it the team is engaging in long daily work-outs that are rapidly whipping the men into shape. Besides the veterans of last year the coaches have a wealth of worthy material to draw upon and from present indications Georgetown will be at its best form when the time arrives for its Northern invasion.

Choice of a Career

From the Yale News

THE NINETY-FOUR

Someone, probably an insurance agent, was quoted recently as saying that from the mass of one hundred college graduates one individual only rose to the Polo and butler class, perilously near the top of the financial ladder. Five others became comfortably off and found themselves after twenty years at the small yacht and chauffeur stage. The other ninety-four presumably congregate in the great section of the American people who drive their own Buicks to the golf club. In other words, dreaming about being a rich man is one thing, and making the grade is "something else again."

Yet the ninety-four presumably work just as hard as the sumptuous six. Their business is the axis on which a small and uninteresting world revolves. They have become devotees of the dollar and when that fickle deity deserts, have nowhere else to turn. Jammed in a dull, straight rut of business they can never leave the road and jump the fence into finer fields of life. This, then, is the portion of ninety-four men out of every hundred now on the campus.

The answer to the problem lies in the proper choice of a career.

Between now and Commencement we shall have something to offer on the subject of "Careers." Watch for the space with the Famous Signature.
