DR. SCOTT SPEAKS ON JOAN OF ARC

Chairman of Carnegie Foundation Describes Beautiful Life of Heroine of History.

Dr. James Brown Scott, of Carnegie Institute, and one of the foremost authorities on international law in the country today, was the distinguished lecturer of the evening, last Monday, in Gaston Hall. Dr. Scott spoke on "Jeanne D'Arc, the Process of Her Condemnation and Rehabilitation."

Vivid and varied detail, coupled with a clear-cut and finished style, made Dr. Scott's discourse very interesting. From the time of Jeanne's birth, which took place sometime between 1410 and 1412, the time of Jeanne's birth, which took

The local Committee of the Georgetown Endowment Association exceeded its quota by $150,000, and the Capitol City marked its approval of a Greater Georgetown by the purchase of $600,000, according to the announcement given out at the luncheon of the endowment committee last Saturday afternoon. The drive was formally concluded at the final meeting, at which the captains in charge at the Willard dining room and Rev. John B. Creeden, S. J., President of the University, declared that Washington has set a most splendid example to the rest of the country and to the alumni. In fact, with the very high contribution of a quarter of a million dollars set as its goal, the success actually subscribed augurs exceedingly well for the success of the entire drive.

In the District, the campaign was extended over an extra week to give the men on the committee an added opportunity.

NETMEN DEFEAT JOHNS HOPKINS

Blue and Gray Tennis Men Take Five Matches From Baltimore Team on Courts.

The Blue and Gray netmen returned victorious last Monday afternoon, when they thoroughly outplayed the Johns Hopkins racketeers in a one-sided match at the Dumbarton Tennis Club. Five matches were played, four singles and one double, the other doubles being called off on account of darkness. Each match played added another victory to the Georgetown string, for the Hilltop team swept the courts in every match, winning all five.

Captain Kunkel disposed easily of his opponent, and had his second victim in Hoffmeister, but after a fast match, defeated him 6-4, 10-8. Reynolds also had a well-fought match with Lowender, but won out, 8-6, 7-5. In the doubles, Kunkel and Mangan easily outplayed Hoffmeister and Mangan, 6-1, 6-0.

MARKMEN SELECT NEW OFFICERS

Son of Col. Saffarans, U. S. A., to Lead Rifle Team Next Year.

At a meeting held Tuesday noon in the office of the R. O. T. C. Commandant, Georgetown's rifle squad elected their officers for next year. Those chosen were voted into office unanimously.

Captain William Bergin, who will head the Blue and Gray Reserve Officers Unit next year, will be the executive officer. Mr. William Saffarans, '24, prominent in all the matches of the past season, as one of the highest scorers, will lead the inter-collegiate champions.

First Sergeant, Manager John N. Duney, '25, will have complete charge of the managerial end.

G. U. TRACKSTERS TAKE PITT MEET

Blue and Gray Runners Shine Against Panthers-McKown Individual Star.

Taking practically all the honors in the features of the meet and placing in every event the Georgetown tracksters overwhelmingly defeated the University of Pittsburgh track team Thursday afternoon at the Hilltop field, standing on the long end of an 83 to 43 score. Pittsburgh points were gained through the two miles run, the broad jump, high jump and pole vault. Pitt was fairly strong in these departments and made a good showing against the Georgetown athletes.

The big noise of the meet was the one-mile race in which the future Capt. Jimmie Connolly, finishing far ahead of a fast field of millers, set a new record for the Georgetown track meets on the hilltop, running the distance in the remarkable time of four minutes, 23.2-3 seconds. Other Georgetown runners finished in this order: Marsters, second; Brooks, third, and Skane fourth.

The combined times of these four runners added together would be two seconds less than the world's record for the four-mile relay in which event Georgetown is expected to break the tape a winner by a comfortable margin. These four million miles form what is undoubtedly the greatest quartet of millers possessed by any one college in the country.

One of the brightest luminaries of the meet was Francis T. "Tip" Maroney who was the highest individual point scorer at the meet. Maroney capped first.

Team Held to Two Hits by Jones and Jenkins—Florence and Urann Star At Bat.

Johns Hopkins baseball aggregation was no match for the fast Georgetown nine and the latter romped off with the contest to the tune of 7 to 2. Throughout the entire game the Baltimorians were able to connect for only two safe bingles off the slants of Jones and Jenkins.

Ken Jones who started the hurrying role for the O'Reilly crew, retired the opposition in the first, but Jenkins,零售ed were his first five innings and only allowed one single in the latter part of the sixth frame. Jenkins relieved him in the seventh. These two youngsters could furnish plenty of right-handed opposition for the best college nines in the country. Jones is only a yearling at the Hilltop, coming from St. Peter's Prep, where he made an enviable repu-

F. S. STUDENTS TO GO TO EUROPE

Men From Downtown School to Go Across This Summer to Study.

Sailing from New York shortly after graduation week, three delegations of Foreign Service School students of Georgetown University will make a friendly "invasion" of Spain, France and Poland this summer. Plans also are under way to send another official delegation of students to Mexico.

Dean Roy S. MacElwee announced that the foreign service students will comprise the first delegation of American students to visit the regenerated republic of Poland and the Polish legation in Washington is co-operating with the school to give the students every advantage of studying the economic and social conditions of that country.

In making its arrangements for the expeditions, the Foreign Service School is broadening a policy that attracted wide attention when first inaugurated three years ago by sending a body of students to Venezuela. Owing to the success of last summer's trip to Mexico, students are enrolling for the European expedition in large numbers. Already fifty-five students have "signed up" and double that number is expected.

The parties will sail from New York June 14 aboard the Minniekaka, an American liner, touching in England and France, and proceeding thence to the three countries it is planned to visit. Lieut. Labat of the French legation in

Maryland easy for Georgetown Nine

Coach Uses Practically Entire Squad as Blue and Gray Down Maryland

Combining their winning streak, the Blue and Gray baseball team easily defeated the Western Maryland University Nine, 19 to 1, on Varsity Field, April 18.

Sixteen hits were amassed by the Hottoppers off the deliveries of the Maryland moundsmen, three of them circuit drives by Flavin, Florence and Murphy. Florence crashed out his four-drive in the fourth, when the bases were loaded. It was one of the longest hits that has been made on Varsity Field this year. Flavin's clout was also a fine one and went a long distance.

McCarthy held the opposition well in hand, allowing but four scattered hits, walking one and retiring five, via the strike-out route. Tabor, 2; and Cunningham replaced Flavin, who worked well for two innings. They were relieved by Zazzalli and McGowan, who went the rest of the game.

McGowan had a big day at the plate, with a double and two singles to his credit. The game gave Coach O'Reilly a good opportunity to look over some of the new men who showed up well in this contest. The score:

The last of the Georgetown lectures for the school term will be given next Monday afternoon in the theater as a Lincoln celebration. Miss Alice Dreyfus, editor of "The Washingtonian," will be the speaker and the platform will be enlivened. It is expected that the audience will be large.

The record set by the various departments of the University is highly laudatory. The performance of the Blue and Gray in the field was splendid, and the home plate was held in a better manner than at any time in recent years, except against Fordham.

The performances of Gegan in the half, which he won 2 to 1; Kinmall, in the American; Reif and Maher in the engine; Hilley and Helfrich in the 400 event were especially noteworthy. In the baseball, McGovern, who had been a substitute in nearly every game, was placed at second base and performed brilliantly. In the track, Hillsey, looked good in the high hurdles which he won with little difficulty, his time being 16.5-6 seconds.

F.S. PROM IS HELD ON LAST FRIDAY

Statesmen and Diplomats and Their Ladies Among Those Attending Reception.

The second annual prom of the Georgetown University School of Foreign Service, took place last Friday evening at the City Club. Music for the occasion was furnished by the well-known Radio City Orchestra of the Radio City. Supper was served at midnight.

Mr. John H. Matter was chairman of the committee on arrangements. Mr. Matter was ably assisted by the following:

Among the patrons and patroonesses for the affair were the Secretary of State and Mrs. Hughes, the ambassador of Chile, Senora de Pezet, the minister of Ecuador, and Senora de Elizalde, the minister of Persia, Mirza Husain Khan Ali; the minister of Sweden and Mme. Wristad, the minister of the Pan-American Union and Mme. Yates, the charge d'affaires, Senor Lafo, the military attaché of the Chilean embassy, Senor Esparza; the secretary of the Ecuadorean legation, Senor Parra; the secretary of the Venezuelan legation, Senor Lozano, the ambassador of Mexico, Senor Chirwing of Chile, Mr. and Mrs. Alvah Patterson, Admiral and Mrs. Ryan; Mr. and Mrs. Mathieu; the ambassador of Peru, Senor Abrego; Mrs. and Mr. James Brown Cooper; Mrs. and Mr. George F. ALL IN READINESS FOR R. O. T. C. INSPECTION

General Staff Committee Expected to Arrive at College Next Week.

Final preparations for the coming R. O. T. C. inspection are now being drawn to a close, and every effort is being made to have all in readiness for the General Staff Committee when they pay their annual visit to Georgetown. As yet no definite date has been set for the occasion, but authorities say, with fair assurance, that it will be in the very near future.

Competition among the various institutions striving for a place on the so-called “Gold Star” or Distinguished List, is by far keener this year than in previous years. In order to regain its former rating the members of the crack Blue and Grey outfit will have to eagerly cooperate during the next few days with the Military Department that ultimately the best results may be effected.

Virginia Military Institute and Virginia Polytechnic Institute, two schools that major in military subjects, will encounter little difficulty, it is believed, in retaining their present high standing. The University of Maryland, Johns Hopkins, Lehigh and Georgetown, accordingly appear to be logical candidates in this corps area between which the sharpest kind of competition will take place.

In the school year 1920-21, exclusive of V. M. I. and V. P. I., among the aforementioned colleges, Georgetown and Johns Hopkins managed to wrest high honors. But in the ensuing annual inspection the table was reversed and Lehigh and Maryland were awarded the privilege of exhibiting the meaningful symbol on the right sleeve of their blouses.

During the past week Lehigh University, ably instructed by Major Lang, U. S. A., underwent its rigid examination. The committee which observed the performances of the South Bethlehem boys seemed to be highly impressed with the spectacular showing made, according to newspaper reports.

The demonstration given by Lehigh was similar to the very creditable one rendered by the Hilltop outfit last spring. It has not as yet been ascertained what the exact program is which will be followed out during the period of inspection. However, it is probable that two days will be required, the first being devoted to inspection of facilities, class rooms, the armory, the range, and records in the office; while the second day will be given over to a formal review, individual inspection, and various drills.

That the Georgetown outfit regain its old place on the Distinguished List this year is not only necessary for the prestige it will inevitably reflect upon the college, but it will make it doubly more difficult next year for the Blue and Grey aggregation to even qualify among those selected colleges from which the Gold Star units are picked if it fails this year. Only 30 institutions can receive the high honor of being classified as “Distinguished” out of a possible 125.

Elaborate preparations are now in process to have a big, spectacular parade and review at the time of the inspection. Major Hobson, commandant, plans to introduce several innovations, which, when carried out, will greatly add to the ordinary reviews of the past.

Georgetown’s unit this year by far bigger and more capable of effects than at any other period of its existence. When the war came S. A. T. C. was abolished, Georgetown quickly fell into line and converted itself from a S. A. T. C. to a R. O. T. C. unit as it was thereafter to be known. This was in January,

GEORGETOWN JOURNAL APPEARS THIS WEEK

April Issue Contains Prize Short Stories, Excellent Verses, and Up-to-the-Minute Editorials.

The April issue of the Georgetown College Journal will appear during the coming week. This issue will be the long awaited short story number, and will contain the prize-winning short story written by Winfried Barret of the Foreign Service School. In addition there will be other stories of unusual merit, and many bits of excellent verse.

To come down to details, the new Table of Contents will contain the following short stories: “For Science,” by Winfried Barret, F. S., the prize-winning story; “Subjective Centuries,” by Louis B. Laplace ’24; “Broken Larkspur,” by Bernard M. Wagner ‘24, a very unusually written story. “Mrs. Martin’s Victory,” by Cyril Clemens ’26, and “The Return Scarf,” a sketch.

There will be a number of sparkling editorials, among them, “Opportunities,” and “Do It Now,” by Mr. John Gahan ’24, the newly elected Editor-in-Chief.

LECTURE SERIES TO CLOSE NEXT MONDAY

The “Monday Lectures” in Gaston Hall will be brought to a close for the present season next Monday, April 30, with an illustrated lecture by Father F. R. Donovan, S. J., on “The Scenic Glory of Switzerland.” The subject has especial appeal at this time when many are looking forward to a summer trip abroad, now that conditions for foreign travel have been somewhat improved.

Father Donovan’s lecture will show the beauty of the land in a series of wonderful views, from St. Gall in the north, famous as a seat of learning, to Zurich and Lucerne, up Mt. Pilatus, to Einsiedeln, the “Lourdes of Switzerland,” across beautiful Lake Lucerne, then to Bern and Interlaken, up the Jungfrau on to lofty Murren, and the beautiful Engadine valley, then to fashionable St. Moritz, and up to the lofty monastery of St. Bernard with its domes, then to Locarno on the lake and it will end with an ascent of Mt. Blanc, capped by the eternal snows.

The lecture will begin at 4:30 sharp.

DOING BIG THINGS.

During the first week of May, the annual prom of the Senior Class, which was held last Friday evening, at Wardman Park Hotel, attracted the following alumni for a pleasurable week-end in Washington. Killian McCann, of Bangor, Me., brother of Robert C. McCann, class of '23, was the guest of the yard. At present he is a student at the Harvard Law School. Mr. Peter Carlin, '22, of Brooklyn, N. Y., former half-back of the Harvard football team, accompanied him as a representative of the Hoya; Mr. Raymond Kunkle, '22, South Atlantic singles and doubles champion and brother of Captain Paul Kunkle, of the University tennis team. JUNIOR BANQUET TO BE AT LAFAYETTE

Men of '24 to Dine on Evening of May 16—Committee Selects Speakers.

One of the foremost class functions of the year will take place on May 16th at the Hotel Lafayette when the Junior class holds its formal banquet. The banquet will be the climax of a successful season. The Lafayette ballroom has been reserved as the dining room, and will be appropriately decorated for the occasion. The Georgetown Collegians have been selected to play for the evening; their melody will add materially to the enjoyment of the gathering. The guests of honor will be the entire Junior Faculty and the President of the University.

The committee in charge of the banquet consists of Messrs. Joseph F. Roesch, of New York, chairman; Harold Trophy of Minnesota, Charles Kelly of Montana, Bart Quinan of New York, and Charles Clifford of Massachusetts.

SENIOR PROM VOTED A HUGE SUCCESS

Class of '23 Gives Enjoyable Dance at Wardman Park Hotel on Last Friday Evening.

One of the most enjoyable affairs of the college social season was the unanimous opinion of those who attended the Senior Prom last Friday evening at Wardman Park Hotel. The class of '23, long noted for its good taste and ability in running successful dances, fairly outdid itself. Excellent music was furnished by Meyer Davis' ten-piece orchestra, imported from Philadelphia, and led by Mr. Davis in person. Alternating with the Meyer Davis band were the Georgetown Collegians, augmented to eight pieces, so that dancing might be continuous throughout the evening. At 11:30 supper was served on the porches immediately adjoining the ballroom to which the guests withdrew until the dancing was resumed at midnight. Attendance at the prom was limited and the Senior dance far surpassed former proms in that the floor was not overcrowded. The favors of the evening, not only pleasing but very appropriate, consisted of card cases for the men and gold pencils on a black ribbon adjusted by a Georgetown seal clasp for the ladies. The committee in charge was headed by Mr. Frank Maloy, and included Messrs. George M. Deq, John W. Gahan, Charles J. O'Byrne, John A. Romweber, and J. Burke Walsh.

ANAPOLIS NETMEN DOWN GEORGETOWN

Navy Men Defeat Blue and Gray in Well-Fought Sets, Taking Four Out of Six Matches.

The Georgetown Varsity net team traveled to Annapolis last Wednesday afternoon and met the strong Navy team in the Hilltoppers' first match of the season. Both sides played fast tennis and staged a brilliant fight for victory from which the Midshipmen emerged the winners.

As indicated by the score Georgetown's racquetters pressed the Navy men all the way. While attempting in no way to effect an alibi it was thought that lack of practice had much to do with the playing of Georgetown. It is understood that up to the time of the Navy match the members of the team had but two workouts on the courts. T. J. Mangan and Captain Paul Kunick featured for Georgetown, while L. Lyman and J. Straup were the stars of the Navy club. Mangan was the only man of the visiting team to win his singles set.

The score—J. Mangan defeated R. Harshman, 3—6, 6—1, 7—5. P. Kunick lost to L. Lyman, 6—8, 6—4, 7—5. J. Becker lost to H. Hartwig, 4—6, 6—4, 6—3. A. Reynolds lost to J. Strang, 6—2, 6—2.

THE HOYA

Maroney and Plansky to Defend LeGendre's Laurels in Pentathlon. Blue and Gray Teams Bid Fair to Clean Up in Relay Races—Captain Connolly Expected to Win.

Georgetown's track squad, under the direction of Coach John D. O'Reilly, began their final week of practice before the dual meet with the University of Pittsburgh, Carnegie at Philadelphia, this week, here today when every man on the squad with the exception of Alex Brester, Fred Hass and Hooker, who has been showing up very well in this event of late. Hass, as the distance medallist of the university's fresh-triplet, respectively. Hass, O'Byrne, Wadkins and Kinnally. The 1-mile relay team will be made up of Herlihy, Kinnally, Hass and O'Byrne. The 880-yard relay team, which is slated to meet Boston College, indoor champions, Penn State, Yale, Cornell and other leading combinations, is still to be decided. Captain Connolly is certain of one position, while Walter Gegan will also be a member of the team. The other two positions are still open and Coach O'Reilly will have a problem in selecting from Alex Brester, Ed Brooks and George Maroney. Brooks is almost certain to be selected as the Medford boy has been running better than ever before. Brester, the elongated jersey boy, who flash-ed such great speed in the 2-mile race these races were a year ago, has not reached his best form yet. The time trials which are to be held at Varisty field early this week will decide the make-up of the team, but at any rate the Blue and Gray is sure to have one of the best combinations of the carnival as every man of the five mentioned has turned in 1.57 or better for the distance. In the distance medley race, Herlihy will probably run the quarter, Gegan the half-mile, Marsters or Plansky, in the three-quarters, and Connolly in the mile. The sprint medley will feature Hass, O'Byrne, Kinnally and Brooks. The South Atlantic 1-mile quartet will be made up of Herlihy, Kinnally, Hass and O'Byrne, Gegan or Plansky.

With Emerson, Norton, Kansas; Remartz, of Muhlenberg; Clapp, of Washington & Jefferson and over a dozen other all-around athletes of nation-wide fame entered in the Pentathlon championship, Georgetown's entries, Francis T. Maroney, of Oklahoma, and Tony Plansky, of Boston, Mass., are receiving but casual notice as possible winners of the title won by Georgetown for 3 years by reason of Robert Legrende's great ability. But the other entries are certain to give a good account of themselves. Of the two, Maroney is the more likely to cop first honors than Plansky. The Oklahoma lad has greatly increased his efficiency in the various events since last April, and should finish well up with the leaders. In the recent dual meet with Pitt, Maroney hurled the javelin 170 odd feet and threw the discus 124 feet. Both these marks are but few feet short of the records set by Legrende in these events at the Relays. It would not be surprising to see Maroney win both the javelin and discus if he continues his good work. Plansky, though not measuring up to this standard with the Great White, is not far behind Maroney, being credited with 150 feet in the javelin throw, and 115 feet in the discus. Both men, in the vicinity of 21 feet in the broad jump, while Plansky on past performances would be the favorite of the two in the 200 metres. The 1,500 metres, which is the final event of the quintet, and which is limited to six entries, will be a severe test. Georgetown is hopeful that the colors of the Blue and Gray will be the colors of victory in the coming classic, and Maroney and Plansky will be the cynosure of all eyes when the Pentathlon event begins. On past performances and in comparison with the expected marks of their rivals, the Hilltop representatives should secure a place well up with the leading quintet, one being conceded the edge as a possible winner.
RIFLE TEAM WILL PRACTICE IN HOLLOW

Because Range at Anacostia Is Unavailable, Accommodations Are Being Made in Valley.

The first steps towards shaping up the Georgetown University Rifle Team for its coming outdoor season will take place this week when the squad will hold practice on the outdoor range down in the Georgetown University Rifle Team for this week when the squad will hold practice. The range at Anacostia, where the team has practiced in the past, is unavailable this season due to repairs. Therefore, the team will practice on a range in the hollow.

The team's practice will consist of hitting targets with their rifles. The team will use a Springfield 30-30 rifle, which is a standard issue weapon. The team will also practice using a variety of other firearms to prepare for different types of targets and shooting conditions.

Mr. Smith, the coach of the Georgetown University Rifle Team, stated that the team's performance will depend on their ability to adapt to the changing conditions. He said, "The best possible results may be obtained under the varying conditions of the elements. Major Hobson is having a sliding target set up. Firing at this will be done over a distance of 125 yards, and pistol targets will be employed. In this way the same practice may be obtained using a Springfield 38-30 as on the long ranges."

Ordinarily the Hilltop squad practices on the Anacostia range, but due to the fact that some repairing work is going on there, it is not available for me. Commanding officers stationed at Quantico, Va., and in charge of the Marine Corps there, have kindly extended a generous—In addition to Georgetown's riflers to try out their ability on their range. But owing to the coming R. O. T. C. inspection, it was decided to re-define the course. Several members of this year's squad have signed up to attend Camp Meade this summer. During the six weeks' course there, another outdoor intercollegiate carnival will be held. In this match a larger list of entries is certain.

When the Anacostia range is fully repaired, which will be a few weeks before the close of school, those going to camp, and any other volunteers will be given an opportunity to make official qualification for medals.

JOHNS HOPKINS LOSES TO HILLTOP NINE

Because Range at Anacostia Is Unavailable, Accommodations Are Being Made in Valley.

The first steps towards shaping up the Georgetown University Rifle Team for its coming outdoor season will take place this week when the squad will hold practice on the outdoor range down in the "Hollow." It will be conducted under the guidance of Sgt. Donahue, U. S. A., who successfully led the team to an indoor intercollegiate championship.

As an objective the gunners are faithfully practicing that they may realize their hopes of wrestling high honors at Annapolis on May 12. The Naval Academy will at that time conduct its annual field trials.

Mr. Smith, the coach of the Freshman Class, addressed a large and interested audience of the Literary Society at their weekly meeting held last Monday evening in the Philodemic Room. The topic Mr. Smith selected for his discourse was "The Diary of Samuel Pepys." His scholarly talk was very well given and highly appreciated by those in attendance. Smith has an at-tractive manner of speech which is quite appealing.

After closing his lecture the speaker said, "Samuel Pepys was born in 1633. He did not begin his famous diary until after he was married and had reached his twentieth natal day.

At the time he began his diary he was bass an obscure clerk in the office of the Admiralty of England. By means of his ability and common sense philosophy he rose rapidly until he became one of the most prominent figures in English naval affairs.

Mr. Smith continued to remark, "One reading his Diary will smile and possibly think him to be a kind of a good-natured, foolish person. Such is not the case, for he was a friend of Charles II, a member of the Royal Society (then in its infancy), and an intimate friend of the leading men of his time."

It was narrated that the Diary is valuable because of the excellent descriptive pictures of the English theater of the period. Pepys himself was an ardent and constant theater-goer. The custom of the peoples of this time Pepys also describes in an instructive way. While we laugh at him, the talker continued, "we must remember that he, by his sagacity, saved the English government much worry in naval affairs. The Diary is very detailed, and one thing I like about him is this: whenever he does anything he thinks he shouldn't have done he will always to an account of it suffix—'For which may God forgive me.'"

Mr. Smith concluded his highly instructive lecture by exhorting those who would be introduced to the great men of Pepys' time to read his Diary and to let that act as a medium.
FRESHMAN NINE CONTINUES TO WIN

Yearlings Defeat Business High School Last Week, 15—4—Hag­gerty and Gillespie Shine.

Georgetown University Freshmen defeated Washington Business High School 15—4, Monday at the Hilltop. Other local high school clubs, Business fell a victim to the superior all­around playing of the Georgetown University yearlings.

For the Frosh, Gillespie and Haggerty starred at bat, the former smashing out a three and a two-bagger, the latter a home run. Connor played well for the losers.

YEARLINGS GIVE THEIR FIRST SOCIAL EVENT

Freshman Class Holds Successful Tea Dance At New City Club.

The recent Freshman Tea Dance held at the local City Club Saturday, April 21, from 4 to 7, was one of the most successful social events of the season. An exceptionally large attendance enjoyed the excellent playing of the famed Hilltop “Collegians.” The yearlings turned out en masse, and a generous number of the upper classes helped to comfortably crowd the dance floor.

The members of the committee who were responsible for the success of the affairs are: Chairman, Mr. John Conklin of Brooklyn, N. Y.; Mr. Gregory Murray of Dorchester, Mass., and Mr. Albert Giordano of New York City.

John Hancock Said:—

(1N 1774)

I HAVE ever considered it as the indispensable duty of every member of society to promote, as far as in him lies, the prosperity of every individual, but more especially of the community in which he belongs.

Life insurance is inseparably bound up with the prosperity of every individual, family and community. It is a secure and prosperous business and satisfactory to the salesman in every way.

The John Hancock would like to interest a few ambitious men who graduate this year to make John Hancock selling their life work.

Statistics on college graduates who have entered life insurance place it at the very top as a source of income. Before making a decision as to your career it would be well to make inquiries of the “Agency Department.”
