Activities to Start in Middle West—Father Nevils Goes to Pennsylvania—Baron Korff Proposes Portuguese Scholarship.

On Saturday, October 13, the National Executive Committee of The Georgetown Endowment Association held its annual luncheon for graduates in the various centers, including the headquarters. Mr. Charles H. English, LL.B., '05, is chairman, and Mr. Edward Douglas White Law Club, the Carroll Law Club, the Albert Maserick, Francis Murray, Albert Brogan, Edward J. Brooks, Thomas Ferry, Matthew Lyons, James A. McNaughton, President of the University, congratulated honor men and those receiving above 70 per cent in all subjects. He was gratified by the reports of the various student activities and urged the members to join the debating societies and lend their moral support to the Law School, presided and delivered a very interesting address to the students. All members of the school were encouraged to take an active interest in this line of endeavor as it would enable them to acquire experience in argumentation and debate, the importance of which is a very essential requisite of those who have chosen the law as a vocation. The membership of the Junior Debating Society is made up from the first and second year classes and that of the Senior Debating Society from the Senior and Post-graduate classes.

Many Debates to Be Held.

In addition to the Junior and Senior Debating Societies there are The Morris Law Club, the Carroll Law Club, the Edward Douglass White Law Club, the Hamilton Law Club, the Forum and Merrick Law Club. These societies have enrolled in their membership a large number of the student body and among them are many very capable speakers, who should uphold the established reputation of Georgetown University, Washington, D.C., October 18, 1923

No. 3

The feature of the contest was the kicking of Le Gendre, who managed to boot the ball out of bounds on Georgetown's five-yard line. Plansky gave the crowd a thrill by returning the ball and forced Roper's charges to rely largely on a punting and forward passing game.

Tigers Score Early.

The tigers were first blood in the seventh minute, after Pennington got over a nice drop-kick from the seventeen-yard line. The rest of the scoring ensued upon Beattie's touchdown in the second quarter followed by a goal kick by Smith, and again in the fourth period when Drews recovered Plansky's blocked kick for a touchdown. Dunsmore kicked successfully for the extra point.

The feature of the contest was the kicking of Le Gendre, who managed to boot the ball out of bounds on Georgetown's five-yard line. Plansky gave the crowd a thrill by returning the ball and forced Roper's charges to rely largely on a punting and forward passing game.

Tigers Score Early.

The tigers were first blood in the seventh minute, after Pennington got over a nice drop-kick from the seventeen-yard line. The rest of the scoring ensued upon Beattie's touchdown in the second quarter followed by a goal kick by Smith, and again in the fourth period when Drews recovered Plansky's blocked kick for a touchdown. Dunsmore kicked successfully for the extra point.

The feature of the contest was the kicking of Le Gendre, who managed to boot the ball out of bounds on Georgetown's five-yard line. Plansky gave the crowd a thrill by returning the ball and forced Roper's charges to rely largely on a punting and forward passing game.

Tigers Score Early.

The tigers were first blood in the seventh minute, after Pennington got over a nice drop-kick from the seventeen-yard line. The rest of the scoring ensued upon Beattie's touchdown in the second quarter followed by a goal kick by Smith, and again in the fourth period when Drews recovered Plansky's blocked kick for a touchdown. Dunsmore kicked successfully for the extra point.
EARTHQUAKE SURVIVOR DEPICTS CATASTROPHE

Personal Experience of American Commercial Attache During Japanese Disaster.

A graphic account of the experience of American officials stationed in Tokyo during the Japanese earthquake disaster is contained in a day-by-day report to the Department of Commerce from Commercial Attache James F. Abbott made public today.

The Japanese people, according to Mr. Abbott, displayed the greatest courage and resourcefulness during the terrible days which followed the cataclysm.

Mr. Abbott's diary follows:

"Saturday morning, September 1, I had gone down to the office and had telephoned my own house about half-past eleven that I would start for home for luncheon at a quarter after twelve.

At five minutes to twelve the first shock came of the terrific earthquake. Having lived through a great earthquake in my life in California and Japan, I was not especially worried, although when the jolting began to fall I jumped for a door sill and called to Steintorf* and my shorthand clerk, Miss Powell, to do the same.

Both were exceptionally cool and self-possessed, as it would probably have been fatal to try to run down the circular stairway which led from the second floor of the chancery where my office was located to the ground. The hallway on both sides, just outside of my office, was lined with heavy bookcases also stood on either side of the door. These fell in all directions and I was soon penned in the corridor in the midst of the rain of plaster and debris until the three terrific and leveling shocks had occurred. We then climbed through a window and back again in back of one of the bookcases and made our way downstairs. The whole building still stood in a drunken sort of way although the rear end of the structure with about 40 feet of remaining wall had collapsed. The writer immediately went to the American ambassador's office had fallen in and if Colonel Burnett did not pull him out both would certainly have been killed. After ascertaining that Mrs. Woods and her mother were both safe and that my staff was out of the building, I had gone down to the office and had

During the Japanese earthquake disaster, the writer, as it would probably have been fatal to try to run down the circular stairway which led from the second floor of the chancery where my office was located to the ground. The hallway on both sides, just outside of my office, was lined with heavy bookcases also stood on either side of the door. These fell in all directions and I was soon penned in the corridor in the midst of the rain of plaster and debris until the three terrific and leveling shocks had occurred. We then climbed through a window and back again in back of one of the bookcases and made our way downstairs. The whole building still stood in a drunken sort of way although the rear end of the structure with about 40 feet of remaining wall had collapsed. The writer immediately went to the American ambassador's office had fallen in and if Colonel Burnett did not pull him out both would certainly have been killed. After ascertaining that Mrs. Woods and her mother were both safe and that my staff was out of the building, I walked down to Tsurumon to see what the possibilities of a conveyance might be to get home. I live about three miles from the Embassy, just at the city limits to the west. No conveyance of any sort could be had, and as the earthquake shocks were continually recurring it was difficult to keep one's stand on the ground. After walking about half a block I commandeered a bicycle from a small delivery boy and, although I had been but three days out of bed and I had not been on bicycle for at least 25 years, I made my way up the street for the distance of a mile or more to Akasaka-Mitsuke. As I traversed this densely populated section and saw that not a single house in any direction was not a single house in any direction was standing but that thousands were in ruins on the ground, probably pinning down half of the inhabitants, my anxiety for the welfare of my own family added to the weakness of my own legs made it very difficult going. However, I man..."
JUNIOR SMOKER IS COMPLETE SUCCESS

Enjoyable Affair Held Last Thursday—Grasty, Russell, and Marsters Speakers of Evening. Committee Arrangements Well Made.

On Thursday night of last week the Junior class held their Smoker at the Madrilion, the scene of many such Georgetown affairs in the past. The committee, consisting of Charles Perlitz, chairman; John Minter, James McNally, and Amadeo Giordano, provided a suitable menu and entertainment of the best, and to enable the success of the party may be attributed. The committee secured as speakers James H. Grasty, President of the Yard; James Russell, Editor of "The Hoya," and George Marsters, Track Captain. Edward Brooks, president of the class, was toastmaster, and a genial one he made.

President Grasty spoke briefly of Georgetown's success in athletics in the past and of prospects for the future. James Russell, Editor of "The Hoya," spoke of the paper and of the University's hopes for its continued success. Captain Marsters outlined our prospects in track for the coming year, and closed the regular program of speakers, as Captains Paul Florence and Coach "Jackie" Maloney, of the football team, were unable to be present. A song by James McLarney and one or two impromptu speeches by members of the class closed the evening's program.

WALSH RESIGNS D. C. LAW POST.

Assistant Corporation Counsel Thomas Gillespie Walsh has resigned to enter private practice in the law offices of James A. O'Shea. Edward W. Thomas, deputy clerk of the court since 1910 and chief deputy clerk since 1920, has been appointed to succeed him, it was announced late yesterday by Daniel E. Garges, secretary of the Board of Commissioners of the District.

Thomas is one of the best known and most universally liked men that has ever been connected with the court and is the son of the late Edward H. Thomas, who for nine years was corporation counsel. He is a native Washingtonian, now living at Fort Myer Heights, Va., it married and has three children. He was graduated from Georgetown University Law School in 1908 and took a post-graduate course at the University of Pennsylvania in 1909. He belongs to the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity of the University of Pennsylvania.

SURVIVOR DEPICTS CATASTROPHE

Continued from page 2

aged to make my way, alternately walking and riding, and eventually reached my own house to find it still standing, although of course shaken. The house was empty but I found my family in the private grounds of Dr. Dan, next door, all safe and unharmed.

"The greatest confusion prevailed throughout the city. I realized that an immediate food crisis was imminent and with a neighbor went out and stocked up with some necessities such as could be obtained. Later on in the afternoon I went down to the Embassy with a friend in his motor car. Everything was still standing although fires were everywhere starting. The car was a small runabout and the Embassy did not seem at that time to be in any danger so, as it was getting dark, I returned home. During the night however, the fires seemed to spread and we found that the Embassy was washed out. I went on foot part way there, but could only get conflicting rumors and came back to my house where, of course, the family spent the night in the open, as strong shocks occurred at intervals of about five minutes.

"As soon as it began to grow daylight about half-past five, I took the bicycle which I had commandeered the day previous and made my way to the Embassy. I had to travel about four miles, over about four blocks of more or less active conflagration, but when I reached the site of the Embassy I found the whole place gone and nothing left. It was a clean sweep. A squad of soldiers had been sent to rescue the archives but nothing had been done. Every stick of furniture, every scrap of paper, all accounts, correspondence and files and three new typewriters which had arrived only a day or two before had completely vanished.

"Not feeling very strong I came home again. As the fire raged in all directions on this day (Sunday) I felt it better to stick around near home. At night as we slept on the ground the earth trembled continually like a gelatine pudding, making sleep almost impossible and the sky was one continuous glow. Practically no attempt was made to fight the fire.

"I had been trying meantime to get some kind of idea of the extent of the disaster and about decided that it would be necessary to have some kind of con-

Continued on page 8
into all the spirit that is the predominating
mark of the man.

As the world-wide campaign goes on,
the goal of five million dollars is nearer and nearer; state after state in this country has responded to the call. The endowment fund large enough to give Georgetown the increased facilities she must have if she is to continue growing;
students in all parts of the world are offering their share of the resources she now seeks, and on the opposite page a name, that may stand out more boldly than that of any other, Father W. Coleman Veal.

INTRA-MURAL SPORTS.
The inter-class and inter-hall football
leagues will begin functioning this week when the teams will turn out for their initial practices. The president of the Junior class, who has charge of the matters, has planned a schedule that will cover the remainder of the football season.
The athletic authorities of the College have generously offered their aid in supplying all the facilities possible for a successful year in intra-mural
football.
The teams will have at their disposal all the uniforms and equipment necessary. The League Association is in control of the scheduled dates. Interest in these contests has always been most keen and, judging from the plans now being made, this
year will surpass all others.

As the writer of the letter displayed on the opposite page a name, the character of the resources she now seeks, and on the opposite page a name, that may stand out more boldly than that of any other, Father W. Coleman
Veal.

THE NATIONAL CHAIRMAN.
Three years ago last September we
entered the office of the Dean to register as a student of the College and
were met by a man whose friendship we
boastfully claim, began at that moment.
We were but one of many Freshmen who greeted him kindly, smile, his
courteous manner, and his helpful advice the impression that the spirit of our future life in Georgetown's halls. That impression has since persisted and de-developed into a deep appreciation of the
inspiration and the spirit of our College have generously offered their aid in
supplying all the facilities possible for a successful year in intra-mural
football.
The teams will have at their disposal all the
uniforms and equipment necessary. The League Association is in control of the
scheduled dates. Interest in these contests has always been most keen and, judging from the plans now being made, this
year will surpass all others.

Mr. Covey, S.J., since his coming to the Hilltop, has been the guiding spirit of this movement. The enthusiasm and enthusiasm with which he has supported and encouraged the student president, Mr. Brooks,
can easily carry out the extensive plans he
is now considering.

THE MAIL DISTRIBUTION.
On this page we print a letter from
one of our readers. The contents are of
to interest to all in the College and need
no explanation. The writer, in his commendable
improvement of mail distribution conditions, is a good one and ought to be executed. He has the support and encouragement of the student president, Mr. Brooks,
can easily carry out the extensive plans he
is now considering.

THE NATIONAL CHAIRMAN.
Three years ago last September we
entered the office of the Dean to register as a student of the College and
were met by a man whose friendship we
boastfully claim, began at that moment.
We were but one of many Freshmen who
greeted him kindly, smile, his
courteous manner, and his helpful advice the
impression that the spirit of our future life in Georgetown's halls. That impression has since persisted and de-
developed into a deep appreciation of the
inspiration and the spirit of our College have generously offered their aid in
supplying all the facilities possible for a successful year in intra-mural
football.
The teams will have at their disposal all the
uniforms and equipment necessary. The League Association is in control of the
scheduled dates. Interest in these contests has always been most keen and, judging from the plans now being made, this
year will surpass all others.

Mr. Covey, S.J., since his coming to the Hilltop, has been the guiding spirit of
this movement. The enthusiasm and
enthusiasm with which he has supported and
encouraged the student president, Mr. Brooks,
can easily carry out the extensive plans he
is now considering.

THE MAIL DISTRIBUTION.
On this page we print a letter from
one of our readers. The contents are of interest to all in the College and need
no explanation. The writer, in his commendable
improvement of mail distribution conditions, is a good one and ought to be executed. He has the support and
encouragement of the student president, Mr. Brooks,
can easily carry out the extensive plans he
is now considering.

THE NATIONAL CHAIRMAN.
Three years ago last September we
entered the office of the Dean to register as a student of the College and
were met by a man whose friendship we
boastfully claim, began at that moment.
We were but one of many Freshmen who
greeted him kindly, smile, his
courteous manner, and his helpful advice the
impression that the spirit of our future life in Georgetown's halls. That impression has since persisted and de-
developed into a deep appreciation of the
inspiration and the spirit of our College have generously offered their aid in
supplying all the facilities possible for a successful year in intra-mural
football.
The teams will have at their disposal all the
uniforms and equipment necessary. The League Association is in control of the
scheduled dates. Interest in these contests has always been most keen and, judging from the plans now being made, this
year will surpass all others.

Mr. Covey, S.J., since his coming to the Hilltop, has been the guiding spirit of
this movement. The enthusiasm and
enthusiasm with which he has supported and
encouraged the student president, Mr. Brooks,
can easily carry out the extensive plans he
is now considering.

THE MAIL DISTRIBUTION.
On this page we print a letter from
one of our readers. The contents are of interest to all in the College and need
no explanation. The writer, in his commendable
improvement of mail distribution conditions, is a good one and ought to be executed. He has the support and
encouragement of the student president, Mr. Brooks,
can easily carry out the extensive plans he
is now considering.

THE NATIONAL CHAIRMAN.
Three years ago last September we
entered the office of the Dean to register as a student of the College and
were met by a man whose friendship we
boastfully claim, began at that moment.
We were but one of many Freshmen who
greeted him kindly, smile, his
courteous manner, and his helpful advice the
impression that the spirit of our future life in Georgetown's halls. That impression has since persisted and de-
developed into a deep appreciation of the
inspiration and the spirit of our College have generously offered their aid in
supplying all the facilities possible for a successful year in intra-mural
football.
The teams will have at their disposal all the
uniforms and equipment necessary. The League Association is in control of the
scheduled dates. Interest in these contests has always been most keen and, judging from the plans now being made, this
year will surpass all others.

Mr. Covey, S.J., since his coming to the Hilltop, has been the guiding spirit of
this movement. The enthusiasm and
enthusiasm with which he has supported and
encouraged the student president, Mr. Brooks,
can easily carry out the extensive plans he
is now considering.

THE MAIL DISTRIBUTION.
On this page we print a letter from
one of our readers. The contents are of interest to all in the College and need
no explanation. The writer, in his commendable
improvement of mail distribution conditions, is a good one and ought to be executed. He has the support and
encouragement of the student president, Mr. Brooks,
can easily carry out the extensive plans he
is now considering.

THE NATIONAL CHAIRMAN.
Three years ago last September we
entered the office of the Dean to register as a student of the College and
were met by a man whose friendship we
boastfully claim, began at that moment.
We were but one of many Freshmen who
greeted him kindly, smile, his
courteous manner, and his helpful advice the
impression that the spirit of our future life in Georgetown's halls. That impression has since persisted and de-
developed into a deep appreciation of the
inspiration and the spirit of our College have generously offered their aid in
supplying all the facilities possible for a successful year in intra-mural
football.
The teams will have at their disposal all the
uniforms and equipment necessary. The League Association is in control of the
scheduled dates. Interest in these contests has always been most keen and, judging from the plans now being made, this
year will surpass all others.

Mr. Covey, S.J., since his coming to the Hilltop, has been the guiding spirit of
this movement. The enthusiasm and
enthusiasm with which he has supported and
encouraged the student president, Mr. Brooks,
can easily carry out the extensive plans he
is now considering.

THE MAIL DISTRIBUTION.
On this page we print a letter from
one of our readers. The contents are of interest to all in the College and need
no explanation. The writer, in his commendable
improvement of mail distribution conditions, is a good one and ought to be executed. He has the support and
encouragement of the student president, Mr. Brooks,
can easily carry out the extensive plans he
is now considering.
ALUMNI NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. William B. Turley, of New Haven, are the parents of a baby girl, born October ninth. A movement may be started by the New Haven Alumni to institute a co-educational course at the University.

John G. Price, LL.B., '04, formerly Attorney General of Ohio and also president of the National Association of Attorneys General, visited the Law School last week.

Joseph I. Gans, '23, of Toledo, has been appointed foreign trade secretary of the Toledo Chamber of Commerce. He will have complete charge of the foreign trade section of the Toledo Chamber, which has been organized to provide assistance to exporters in that city.

In a letter to Mr. Thomas H. Healy, Assistant Dean, Mr. Gans paid a high compliment to the School of Foreign Service, stating that he felt that his course in the school had been the telling argument in his favor when applicants for the position were being considered.

Mr. W. E. Foxe, of Cincinnati, a member of the Class of '97, A.B., visited the College last week.

Leo J. Casey, A.B., '21, former Editor-in-Chief of The Hoyah is now holding a responsible position on the staff of the Hartford Courant.

John Victor Walsh, A.B., '23, of Cleveland, is acting as musical director of the comedy "Name It," to be produced Friday and Saturday evening at Poli's.

Drs. Eugene G. Boss, Geo. E. Cogan, and Andrew F. Resnisky, of last year's Senior class, are interning at Saint Francis' Hospital, Hartford, Conn.

Drs. John T. Malone, Bradley G. Hovigkins, and Winston R. Haynes are resident physicians at Jersey City Hospital. They are graduates of Georgetown University and address by prominent undergraduates.

Among those who will speak are: Paul Florence, Captain of Football; Jackie Malone, Varsity Coach; James Grasty, President of the Yard; James Russell, Editor of The Hoyah; George Marsters, Captain of Track; and George L. Burke.

Those who are in charge are: John J. Powers, chairman; William B. O'Mahoney, and Joseph Wholly.

Mr. Louis J. Slattery, '24, is the winner of the dinner at Bartholdi's this week, given through The Hoyah, by Mr. Bert Olmstead.

The Losekam Sea Food a Specialty
1329 35th Street, Northwest

University Cafe
1218 Wisconsin Avenue

Complete Outfits for College Men
Suits, Topcoats—

All the appropriate requirements of the Wardrobe for Fall and Winter

Mr. James J. Kirwin was suddenly called to New York to the bedside of his mother on Friday last. Mrs. Kirwin died Sunday evening.

We extend to Mr. Kirwin in his bereavement the heart-felt sympathy and condolences of every member of The Hoyah staff.

THE WISTERIA
HOMEMADE PASTRY
1427 F Street, Northwest

The Avenue at Ninth
INTERHAL PROGRAM FOR YEAR ANNOUNCED

Mr. Comey, S.J., Faculty Director, and Edward Brooks, '25, Student Head, have arranged — New Plans Formulated — Championship Determined by Points.

The Intra-Mural Sports League, formed last year under the direction of Mr. D. J. Comey, S.J., and M. G. L. Burke, '24, has resumed activities and made known its plans for the coming year. Mr. Comey will retain his office of faculty director of the League, while the student head this year will be Mr. E. M. Brooks, President of the Junior Class. The Hall managers, who are to work in conjunction with Mr. Comey and Mr. Brooks are: North, Mr. John MacGowan, '24; Healy, Mr. Joseph Higgins, '24; Ryan, Mr. Jack Sullivan, '24; and Maguire-Mulledy, Mr. Charles A. Perlitz, '25.

Three Sports Determine Standing.

Football, basketball, and baseball are the sports upon which league standing will be determined. In appropriate season, other sports may be made a matter of inter-hall contention, but even so, the outcome of such contests will have no bearing upon the standing of any team in the league.

Point System Inaugurated.

To determine the winner of the banquet to be awarded to the Hall winning the league championship, a point system has been decided upon, two points to be recorded for a win in each contest and one for a tie in case of a tie. The Hall, whose teams have scored the greatest point total in an equal number of contests with rival Halls, will be crowned champion of the Intra-Mural Sports League. In case of a tie in final standing, the rival teams shall compete in a track meet, the outcome of which shall decide the championship.

Football Uniforms Issued.

Through the efforts of Mr. Comey and the courtesy of Fr. MacDonough, thirty complete football outfits have been secured for the use of the Hall teams. The two teams that are to play each week, or, at least, given fifteen minutes of each week's practice, will qualify for the final contest. The eligibility rule for football reads, that no man shall be eligible for inter-hall football until the football uniform has been issued.

G. U. Downed by Tigers

Continued from page 1.

Fighting qualities. For a short time a kicking duel took place. Jawish went in for Sheehan, who was knocked out. Haas intercepted a forward and carried the ball nine yards. A line plunges followed and Byrne then attempted a dropkick but failed to put it over the bar. Princeton punts and Hagerty was caught in his tracks. Georgetown received a penalty for holding. A forward pass was incomplete. Foley went in for Florence, who was hurt. Plansky kicked to Princeton and the Tigers attempted four passes, two being good for a total of fifty yards, while the other two were incomplete. Georgetown then showed its wonderful line strength when it held Princeton on the two-yard line. Plansky punted. Georgetown was penalized fifteen yards for holding. A minute later Beattie passed over the line for a touchdown and Smith made the goal kick. First half: Princeton, 10; Georgetown, 0.

Punts and Penalties Mark Third Quarter.

Plansky kicked and Princeton ran the ball back twenty-three yards. A forward failed. Georgetown received the ball on a punt. Hagerty got five yards. A bad pass cost Georgetown ten yards, and on the next play Plansky punted. Then followed considerable kicking on both sides. Princeton was penalized fifteen yards. On a forward they got twenty yards and gained eight more on a line plunge. The referee handed the touchback and Smith made the goal kick. Second half: Princeton, 20; Georgetown, 0.

Nassau Launches Aerial Attack.

The fourth period opened up with much kicking and forward passing. Princeton attempted six aerial heaves in this quarter, all of which were unsuccessful. Georgetown obtained the ball on the interception of a pass. The Tigers' final tally came when Drews on the next play dropped on Plansky's blocked kick behind the Blue and Gray goal.

R. O. T. C. Band at Game.

An added feature which tended to lend color to the Georgetown rooting section was the Hilltop R. O. T. C. Band, which made a splendid group in the stands, clad in blue sweaters and white trousers. Playing before the game and

THE HOYA

FATHER GIPPRICH RADIOS WORLD SERIES GAMES.

The student body of the College is indebted to Father Gipprich for the excellent radio arrangements, which brought first-hand reports of the World Series to the Hilltop. The progress of each game was announced play-by-play to the eager fans in the radio room in the basement of the Healy Building.

NEW GRIDGRAPH

Students Watch Game in Gymnasium—Novel Board Brings Out-of-Town Contests to Campus—Permanent Fixture.

The students who remained at the College over last week-end, followed the actions of the Tigers at Princeton by playing the games by means of the new electric grid-graph. The reports came by special wires, and just as each play was completed, the students in Ryan Gymnasium received the news by the flashing lights on the grid-graph. The large football-shaped board depicted every move of the ball, the man that carried it, the distance and position of the pigskin just as it was on the Princeton field.

The grid-graph, purchased by the Athletic Association, has become a College institution. It will be used all this season, and in the future.

between the halves they heightened up the crowd with their tuneful selections.

G. U. DOWNED BY TIGERS

F. C. G. 17

N. C. 0

Poole

Beattie 2 Q R

Princeton 1st Quarter

Touchdowns—Beattie, Drews. Goals—Smith, Crowell.

Planesky kicked and Princeton ran the ball back twenty-three yards. A forward failed. Georgetown received the ball on a punt. Hagerty got five yards. A bad pass cost Georgetown ten yards, and on the next play Plansky punted. Then followed considerable kicking on both sides. Princeton was penalized fifteen yards. On a forward they got twenty yards and gained eight more on a line plunge. The referee handed the touchback and Smith made the goal kick.

G. U. DOWNED BY TIGERS

F. C. 17

N. C. 0

Poole

Beattie 2 Q R

Princeton 1st Quarter

Touchdowns—Beattie, Drews. Goals—Smith, Crowell.

FROSH GRIDMEN PLAY SATURDAY

Next Saturday, the well trained yearling football squad, tutored by Coach "Bill" Kenyon, of Manchester, N. H., and against which Hilpott fielded, will journey to Emmitsburg, Md, where they will essay conclusions in their initial contest with Mt. Saint Mary's Freshman eleven. The Georgetownmen are in excellent shape and should not encounter any great amount of difficulty in coming out on the winning end of the final count.

The opposing Eleven that the Maryland college will put on the field will not be an entirely Frosh team. A few scats and "Preps" are eligible for the first year outfit to face Kenyon's charges.

Because of the almost daily changes that the Blue and Gray gridiron instructor is making it is rather difficult to predict just who will see action. However, it is probable that the first eleven will select to start against Mt. St. Mary's.

Prospective Frosh Lineup.

Though in all probability Kenyon will use about every man that makes the trip, those who have been performing a greater part of the time in recent practice sessions will likely bear the brunt of the burden in Saturday's struggle.

Thomas Murphy from Regis High, New York, will probably line at end with Edward Swinburn, national interscholastic indoor half-mile champ; and Fincke, are promises for halfbackers with ex-Pawhuska, Oklahoma, bright light, with his reputation. Larry Conroy, the 275-pound all-state tackle of St. Joseph's Prep, in Philadelphia, appear to be the best man for the job. Flinn, McNulty and Magrath are sure of time and should be good at tackle.

Ta Gormly, a former Campion Academy, Wisconsin student, and Enright, Kenyon has two dependable signal callers. The former is also a promising punter.

"Dad" Flavin, brother of the ex-captain Jack, who once shove for Portland, Maine, is giving a good account of himself to date and looks like a fixture at one-half back position. Birthright and Cashman give dependable selections for the other side. Cashman played halfback for Kenyon's College, Minn., last year. Clark ought to receive the fullback assignment.

"HOYA" NEW MASCOT.

A great mistake has just been corrected. The new mascot was handicapped last year by an unsuitable name. He was officially known as Jazz Bo. His pedigree bore unsuitable name. He was officially known as Jazz Bo. His pedigree bore
BERCHMANS SOCIETY CHOOSES OFFICERS
Mr. Comey, S.J., New Moderator, Outlines Plans—New Officers. Regular Meetings to Be Held.

The Berchmans Society of the College held its annual election of officers last Wednesday, October 10. Those selected to serve for the coming year are: President, Joseph Charles, ‘24; vice president, Joseph Higgins, ‘24; secretary, J. Gibbons Burke, ‘24; treasurer, James Digney, ‘24. Mr. Comey, S.J., the newly-appointed moderator of the society, briefly discussed plans for the coming year. Regular meetings will be held on Wednesday evenings.

PHILODEMIC.
The Philodemic Society has completed the business of choosing new members and the reading of the constitution. The new members are Messrs. Barney Tighe, Bernard Foley, Joseph McGuillen, Andrew Casey, Frank O’Connor, John Rice, James Eagan, Thomas Callaghan, Thomas Fenlon, James McLarney, Edward Murphy, Joseph Biegan, Matthew Lyons, and William Kalt. With the conclusion of these matters the regular series of debates has begun. For criticism of Mr. Clifford and Mr. Roesch.

BLUE AND GRAY ELEVEN DOWND
Continued from page 1
of Georgetown in the many inter-collegiate debates which are to be held during the coming school year.

Good Spirit Shown.
During the past week several members of the Athletic Association visited the law school for the purpose of encouraging all those who were able, to attend the game at Princeton. The Athletic Association men were accorded a most welcome reception on the part of both the Faculty and the student body. The faculty, through the Dean, excused from class all those who made the trip, the student body likewise showed a desire to co-operate; the presidents of the various classes addressed their respective classes and urged all who possibly could, to make the trip. The result of this display of school spirit was found in the enthusiastic response of the students to the call and the appearance of a large representation of law school men at game.

Freshman Law Class Officers Nominated.
Nomination of officers for the coming school year, 1923-24, were held Friday, October 12th. Mr. Kirschner, President of last year's Freshman Class, presided and received the nomination of many candidates for the various class positions.

PHILONOMOSIAN.
At the meeting held last Monday evening, Mr. Thomas S. Hayes, ‘24, president of the society, submitted his resignation. Mr. John Haller, ‘24, was unanimously elected to succeed Mr. Hayes as president. Upon the election of Mr. Haller, the office of secretary was vacated, as Mr. Haller formerly held that office. Mr. Charles Peritz, ‘25, was unanimously elected to fill that position.

LITERARY SOCIETY.
The regular meeting of The Literary Society, held last Monday evening, was called to order by the Vice-President, Mr. Robert Castellini, ’26, in the absence of the President, Mr. Holmes Clare, ’26. One new member was accepted by the society, Mr. Namack, ’27. The society will follow out the program selected by Mr. Mulligan, S.J., the faculty adviser. The program arranged for the next meeting consists of the Rise of the Essay and The Life and Works of Michel deMontaigne.

CULLINGSWORTH
Clothing Furnishings

Thursday and Friday
Oct. 18-19
HOTEL RAILEIGH

Sack Suits, Sport Suits (four-piece)
Dinner Suits, Top Coats, Overcoats,
Ulsters, Chesterfields and Furnishings

Representative
R. LEE PUGH

SPORT MART
914 F Street N.W.
1303 F Street N.W.
1410 N.Y. Ave. N.W.
ATHLETIC OUTFITTERS
Special G. U. Discount to Students
Ask for a Card Next Time You Call

M. E. HORTON, INC.
WHOLESALE GROCERS & COFFEE ROASTERS
Office and Salesroom, 606-620 C St. S. W

J. Maury Dove Co.

COAL
Principal Office
1408 H St. N.W.

“What a difference just a few cents make!”
my own house is located, is relatively uninjured, that is to say, it is unburned and the earthquake damage is no more than could reasonably be expected under such circumstances.

"Of the two industrial centers mentioned above the second is, of course, entirely unscathed and actively functioning. Likewise large American companies are planning to move to Kobe, according to reports. Considering the long lapse of time that must intervene before business or industry is resumed at all in this district, it seems to me imperative that an office should be established in the Osaka-Kobe district somewhere to maintain constant touch with the Bureau and report upon business conditions so that American business men may at least know what is going on."

"For days a constant army of people have been milling through the streets and streaming into the country. It is a spectacle that movie directors would doubtless be glad to observe as a source of inspiration. It resembles nothing I have ever seen before except perhaps the old Coney Island spectacle called 'The Destruction of Pompeii.' Everyone is good natured and the Japanese common people have reacted wonderfully to the crisis. They deserve all praise."

"Steintorf, Paul P., of Chase City, Va., Assistant Trade Commissioner attached to American Embassy, Georgetown F. S. graduate."

"Colonel Burnett, Military Attache to Embassy."

"Yokohama, Steintorf then walked back to Tokyo, having got possession of a bicycle somewhere, leading and carrying the women of this family to Tokyo. As the young son of the Mexican Minister had disappeared in Yokohama, discovered and rescued him, and that (Yokohama Specie Bank) is swept out as if a sponge had been put into it."

"Mr. Steintorf is to be commended for his distinguished service here. He is a statesman, and so far as we know, the only American diplomat who has been in Japan for the last few years."

VARSITY SQUAD LEAVES FOR ATLANTA TODAY.

Not disheartened by previous defeats at the hands of the Marines and Princeton, the Georgetown Squad, twenty-four strong, entrained for Atlanta today.

Duofold inspires fluent Thinking and lightens your college work—unruly pens distract and discourage

DON'T tamper with your education—don't encumber your mind—by using an unruly fountain pen. Such pens are the reason the classic Duofold was created.

Look at economy through the Future's eye—see that years after college days are over you'll be using the handsome Duofold that you buy today. For its balanced swing and super-smooth point embody youth eternal.

This Chinese lacquer-red pen with smart design and unruly pens dislracl and discourage your mind—by using an unruly fountain pen. Such pens are the reason the classic Duofold was created.

Duofold Jr. $5

Duofold Jr. $5

With ring for chatelaine

THE PARKER PEN COMPANY

JANESVILLE, WISCONSIN

Rivals the beauty of the Sunrise

Parker

FOOL'S CURVE PENS

With The 15 Year Point

The Farmers and Mechanics National Bank

109 Years in the Service of the People

J. V. MULLIGAN

Badges, Graduation Medals, Trophies Class Pins, Fraternity Pins

1110 F STREET, N. W.

Washington, D. C.

Lunch Room & Soda Fountain

1224 36th Street

N. MANDIS

“Right Around the Corner”