The Georgetown University Law Center offers several academic programs within the LL.M. framework. The following is a key to understanding the program designations in this publication.

TAX: Taxation

SEC: Securities and Financial Regulation

ICL: International and Comparative Law

LLM: Individualized (U.S. Students)

ILS: International Legal Studies*

EBC: Employee Benefits Certificate

ADVO: Advocacy

*Most students who received their J.D. outside the United States are classified in this publication as ILS. These students may receive a degree in International Legal Studies or may be pursuing other programs of study that will lead to the general LL.M. degree. International students in the Taxation or Securities and Financial Regulations degree programs are designated as such.
