Georgetown students love to have fun in the sun! From vacations to returning home, once classes end for summer vacation, Hoyas scatter across the globe. While many stay to study over the summer, some travel to other areas of the world in search of knowledge and new experiences.
Homecoming is a time to celebrate your Hoya identity. Hundreds of recent and former Hoyas gathered at the 2010 homecoming game to cheer on the football team, support their school, and remember why it’s great to yell HOYA SAXA!

Leo’s workers always try to make students feel at home while on campus. They succeeded yet again when they recreated Christmas at the cafeteria. Students enjoyed extra desserts, as well as festive decor and a visit from Santa himself.

Georgetown students love to haunt the city! From trick-or-treating on Embassy Row to partying on M Street, students can be seen throughout the area. There are also always parties throughout campus, from Copley Formal Lounge to individual apartments.

Students set up advertising in Red Square

Red Square is Georgetown University’s free speech zone. Hoyas can protest, table, and speak their minds in this space without fear of the consequences. Hoyas need a space like this to speak their minds and be heard by the university and their fellow students.
From the OIP Ball to the OPE formal, tons of formal events go on throughout campus every year. Students dress up for a chance to see one another and have fun off (or on!) campus. Seniors also partake in the Graduation Ball, held during the graduation weekend festivities. Bring your dancing shoes because Georgetown students know how to have fun!
Georgetown students rush out to support their fellow Hoyas every chance they get, with Homecoming and basketball games remaining the most popular events. See what other Hoyas did to support their classmates!

Students break away from Georgetown twice each spring semester - for spring and Easter breaks. They may go home or venture to one of the common locations, like Cancun or the Caribbean. Others travel around the world while on study abroad or participate in one of the many different alternative spring break options.

Despite their love of campus, Hoyas sometimes just need some time away to explore the area around Georgetown. Many tour the Smithsonian museums, take bike rides around the monuments, or visit other historical sites throughout the city. Others choose to have fun in Adams Morgan and Dupont Circle. Either way, DC has something for everyone!

Students flock to the lawn in front of Copley and Healy buildings in order to study, eat, tan, or hang out with friends. It boasts wireless internet (we think?) and remains a favorite meeting place for students and teachers alike.
It's that time of year again! Yeah, time for Georgetown Day! This event, put on by the university every spring on the last day of Friday classes, always proves to be a fun day in the sun. It serves as a day of relaxation before the stress and craziness of finals begins.

On April 30, 2010, students, faculty, and staff gathered on the Healy and Copley lawns to relax and have some fun. Games, food, rides, and blow-up activity stations were placed throughout the area. Some faculty and staff also brought their children to enjoy the festivities. These included a dunk tank, complete with a list of Georgetown celebrities to fall in the water! GUSA President Calen Angert, Vox Populi Editor Molly Redden, SFS Dean James Reardon-Anderson, Father Pat Rogers, and SAC Chair Sofia Navia all got soaked!

During the event, there was also a senior art gallery open in the Walsh building.

College junior Samhir Vasdev and senior Christine Pfeil combined their designs and won the Georgetown Day t-shirt art contest.

The day's other events included Laughter Yoga, Face Painting, the Dorothy Brown Award, Zumba class, Jack's Wings Contest, multiple different religious ceremonies, and theater/A Cappella performances.

Congratulations to Georgetown Day on its 10th Anniversary!

The McDonough School of Business (MSB) remains one of the premier business schools in the country. Sporting very low acceptance rates and an amazing faculty, the MSB is a top school for any student looking to find a business, accounting, or finance degree.

Founded in 1957, the MSB has always been respected for its academic excellence and international focus. The International Business major remains one of the school’s most popular choices, and students go on to live and work around the globe.

Georgetown’s McDonough School of Business offers undergraduate and graduate degrees in business administration that prepare students and professionals to achieve new heights of leadership and influence. Situated at the hub of global business and political power in Washington, D.C., Georgetown’s McDonough School of Business integrates traditional business coursework with an understanding of the political and social realities that shape global markets. With its new facilities, opened in 2009, this school has the power to take number one.

The Army Reserve Officer Training Corps (ROTC) Program is comprised of 156 students from four area universities: Georgetown University, American University, The George Washington University, and the Catholic University of America. The Hoya Battalion is one of the oldest student groups on Campus and the oldest military unit in the city, dating back to 1831. Past Georgetown Cadets have fought honorably in every military engagement since the Civil War.

Today, the Hoya Battalion continues this history of excellence by consistently ranking in the top 10 percent of all ROTC units in the country and claiming multiple national titles in the annual Army 10 Miler Race and regional Ranger Challenge competition. The Hoya Battalion has produced some of the most successful Army officers in the country, including two Army Chiefs of Staff. To date, Georgetown ROTC has commissioned over 4,100 officers and will add 25 to that number in May 2010.

Georgetown students travel the globe to learn languages, understand cultures, and experience the world. Students travel to many countries across the globe, including the United Kingdom, Ireland, France, Spain, Russia, Denmark, Jordan, Egypt, Australia, South Africa, Ghana, Brazil, China, and Ecuador. The university also has two villas, one in Florence, Italy and another in Alanya, Turkey. Students have the option of direct immersion or studying in English and immersing themselves in the culture, depending on the program. Some programs also offer the option of a home-stay. Popular programs include the villas, Oxford, American University in Cairo, and the London School of Economics. Overall, many Georgetown students go abroad and enhance their college experiences.

Although the Hoyas had a disappointing season, its players remained prominent members of the Georgetown academic community. Thirty Georgetown football players were named to the Patriot League Football Academic Honor Roll for the fall semester, including the starting quarterback and one of the team's captains.

To be eligible for this honor, each athlete must attain a 3.20 GPA for the fall semester (while playing football) and be awarded a varsity letter.

Throughout the league, 155 students were named to the honor roll, with Georgetown taking 19.3 percent. Eleven seniors, five juniors, ten sophomores, and four freshmen were included on the list. Senior accounting major Matt Kinnan topped the list with a 3.84 GPA, followed by sophomore Drew Herma (3.67) and junior Geoffrey Schnorr (3.63). Kinnan was honored by the team with the Mush Dudofsky Award for Outstanding Student-Athlete.

The prestigious No. 35 Joe Eacobacci Memorial Jersey, given to the team's most exemplary player in honor of a former player killed in the September 11th attacks, was presented to junior Nick Parrish. He will be one of the team's two captains for the 2010-2011 season.

GU Soccer Takes Over the BIG EAST

The Hoyas blasted off this season with senior Len Coleman earning a spot on the All-BIG EAST Preseason Team. They were set to advance as one of the conference's best teams. They continued this amazing start by blanking their first opponents, Davidson College, with a score of 3-0.

In September, Coleman was then named to the TopDrawerSoccer.com National team of the Week, while teammate Ian Christianson was named the BIG EAST Rookie of the Week. Coleman was also named the BIG EAST Defender of the Week.

After a disappointing loss in their first BIG EAST game of the season, the Hoyas redeemed their performance by shutting out Syracuse in their second BIG EAST game with a score of 2-0. This game marked the Hoyas' fifth shutout of the season. With many starters on the bench, key freshman players stepped in and stepped up their game to ensure the win.

After this amazing win, the Hoyas received another round of accolades. On his way to his fourth shutout of the season, Mark Wilber was named BIG EAST Goalkeeper of the Week after leading the Hoyas to win against rivals Villanova and Rutgers. Forward Liche Onyeador was nominated to TopDrawerSoccer's Team of the Week and Defender Alex Verdi was named to the College Soccer News' Team of the Week. Verdi was also named to the BIG EAST Honor Roll alongside teammate Scott Larrabee.

When CoSIDA/ESPN the Magazine announced their Academic All-District teams, Wilber was named to the first team, while Verdi made the second team. Christianson was named to the BIG EAST All-Rookie Team. Teammate Len Coleman finished off the team's honors after his nomination to the Third Team All-Region by the National Soccer Coaches Association of America.

From August through November, this season was amazing for the Hoyas' women’s soccer team. The Hoyas began their season's BIG EAST play by rolling over Villanova 4-0 in September. Goalie Jackie Desjardin broke her career shutout record against Villanova.

Sara Jordan continued the Hoyas' record season by setting a new Georgetown goal record in the game against rival Pittsburgh. During the game, she managed to score the 26th and 27th goals of her career on the hilltop. The week after, Jordan was named to the TopDrawerSoccer.com Women's College Team of the Week. Jordan was also later honored as the Co-BIG EAST Offensive Player of the Year, and, with teammate Ingrid Wells, was named to the All BIG EAST first team. Teammates Kelly D’Ambrisi and Catherine Cabot were named to the second and rookie teams, respectively.

Many Hoyas were also honored by the COSIDA/ESPN the Magazine Academic All-District Women's Soccer Team. Sara Jordan and Caitlin Durkee were named to the first team, while Michaela Buonomo was named to the second team. TopDrawerSoccer.com also paid tribute to Ingrid Wells and Sara Jordan's performance throughout the season by naming them both Honorable Mention All-Americans. Wells was also chosen for the ECAC Division I Women's Soccer All-Star first team. D’Ambrisi, Jordan, and Wells were also nominated for the All Northeast Regional second team by the NSCAA. Michaela Buonomo was nominated as the BIG EAST Defensive Player of the Year, while teammates Camille Trujillo, Sara Jordan, and Ingrid Wells were named to the BIG EAST Weekly Honor Roll.

The Hoyas started out their volleyball season very successfully. In early September, the Hoyas triumphed over Morgan State University. Middle blockers Vanessa Dorismond and Lindsay Wise combined for 23 kills and hit .528. Sophomore setter Ashley Malone also managed 34 hits to secure the win. At the 2009 Georgetown Classic, Kourtney Robinson had 14 kills to ensure the Hoyas' domination of the University of Maryland. Despite the loss, Maryland was still declared the Georgetown Classic champions after they won a tie with the Hoyas and William and Mary due to game differentials.

Sophomore libero Tory Rezin was named to the BIG EAST Weekly Volleyball Honor Roll after securing the MVP nomination in the UNC-Greensboro Tournament. Rezin also set the school's single season dig record in the Hoyas' 3-1 victory over DePaul. She managed 19 digs in that game to raise her season total to 475 digs. The previous record-holder was Simone Kolman with 472 (1990). Rezin also set the Hoyas' record number of digs in one game earlier in the season.

Junior middle blocker Vanessa Dorismond was named to the BIG EAST second team. She led the Hoyas in kills this season (346) and hit .286. The Hoyas also hosted their second-annual DIG PINK for Breast Cancer Awareness game against BIG EAST rival Pittsburgh. Throughout the month of October, 330 colleges and 285 high schools banded together to support the cause through volleyball.

Congratulations, Hoyas! This year marked the best season for the women’s field hockey team in years. Senior Kristen Volpe gave an unbelievable effort to lift the Hoyas to this level of excellence. She had a season-high five goals in 2008 and followed it up in 2009 with ten, becoming only one of four Hoyas in the past decade to reach that milestone. Volpe was the lone senior on the squad, completing her career on the hilltop with 18 goals. She was selected to the BIG EAST Weekly Honor Roll twice this season, making her the first to earn such a distinction under head coach Tiffany Marsh. She managed three goals against Lock Haven University and raised the Hoyas to their win with Rutgers, with a goal and an assist.

The game against Rutgers University was the Hoyas’ first win since September 2007 and the first BIG EAST Conference win in program history. Sophomore midfielder Meggie Taylor and freshman forward brocht scored in the win along with Volpe.

In November, the Hoyas defeated Radford University, increasing their number of wins to two. On Senior Day, junior forward Micaela O’Toole scored a golden goal to lift the Hoyas over their opponents. This marked the first home victory for the Hoyas since 2007.

The Georgetown crew and rowing teams had an amazing year, including nationally-ranked boats. For the first time in history, Georgetown's heavyweight crew team qualified its freshman-8 boat for the Grand Finales at Eastern Sprints. The boat finished fifth in the race.

At the International Rowing Association Championship the Hoyas men's heavyweight-4 and lightweight-8 finished second and fifth place, respectively. The crew team's Joe Ledvina, a rower for the Penn AC, won the US Rowing U23 Trials for boats with four rowers or more after graduating from Georgetown in May.

The women's rowing team also had a fantastic season. At the BIG EAST championships, the Hoyas placed second overall with three silver medals and one bronze. Seniors Laura Donaldson and Megan Ginivan were named to the BIG EAST All-Conference First Team, while senior Alex Vezina and sophomore Erin Landy were named to the second team.

Seven team members were named Collegiate Rowing Coaches' Association National Scholar Athletes. These were Jackie Fogarty, Megan Ginivan, Sydney LeGuyader, Jaqui Snell, Juliana Pugliese, Katharine Thompson, and Alex Vezina.

At the IRA Championship Regatta, the women's lightweight varsity eight and lightweight varsity four both placed sixth in the grand finals. This equates to sixth in the nation. Senior lightweight Megan McGovern was named to the CRCA 2010 Pocock Lightweight All-America Team. Senior lightweight Katharine Thompson was named Georgetown's female scholar athlete of the year by the BIG EAST.

Former Hoya Missy Schwen Ryan (C '94) was inducted into the National Racing Hall of Fame. She is a two-time Olympic medalist, winning silver in Atlanta in 1996 and bronze in Sydney in 2000.
After a season full of hits and misses, the Hoyas stunned everyone with their performance at the BIG EAST Tournament at Madison Square Gardens. They came in as the eighth seed, good enough to earn a bye in the first round of play but not good enough to beat first-ranked Syracuse in the quarterfinals. They proved everyone wrong. After their bye in the first round, the Hoyas went on to defeat the University of South Florida 69-49 to move into the quarterfinals. Unfortunately, it seemed as though their BIG EAST ride could be over, as they faced first-seed Syracuse. However, the Hoyas outperformed their competition with a 22-4 run in the second half to come out on top, winning 91-84. Junior guard Chris Wright led his teammates with 27 points, while sophomore center Greg Monroe distinguished himself with 15 points and 10 rebounds. In the semi-finals, the Hoyas triumphed yet again with a 80-57 win over Marquette. Monroe repeated his stand-out performance with his 13th double-double of the season.

Marquette. Monroe repeated his stand-out performance with his 13th double-double of the season.

Unfortunately, despite their unbelievable performance in the tournament, the Hoyas were unable to beat West Virginia in the championship game. They lost 60-58 after Chris Wright's drive for the basket took just a few seconds too long. He led the team again with an impressive 20 points and 8 assists.

The Hoyas were unable to repeat this record run, as they fell to Ohio University early in the tournament, with a 97-83 loss. The Hoyas were ranked third in their bracket. Greg Monroe, one of the Hoyas' standout players, decided to enter the NBA draft after his sophomore year on the hilltop. He was selected as the seventh pick in the first round of the draft by the Detroit Pistons.

For the first time in 17 years, the Hoyas made it into the national rankings in January. This season also marked the team's first NCAA bid since 1993. The Hoyas were seeded fifth in the Memphis region while sitting at the #13 spot nationally. The Hoyas annihilated Marist in the first round of the tournament, winning 62-42. Junior Monica McNutt was a huge factor in this win after she nailed her 3-pointers in the second half. Unfortunately, the Hoyas were defeated in the second round of the tournament when they faced fourth-seed Baylor University. The team unfortunately shot under 10% for much of the first half, and only ended with a 17.1% shooting average for the night, falling 49-33.

In the BIG EAST Tournament, the Hoyas were the third-seed and therefore earned a double-bye. Unfortunately, they fell to sixth-seed Rutgers University in the Quarterfinals with a score of 63-56 in double overtime. The entire team worked together to earn this honor, but the greatest efforts must be attributed to Freshman Ta'Shauna "Sugar" Rodgers, Monica McNutt, and head coach Terri Williams-Flournoy. Rodgers was named to the All-BIG EAST First Team, the only freshman in the BIG EAST to earn the honors. She was also unanimously named to be on the All-BIG EAST Freshman Team. Throughout the season, Rodgers averaged 18.1 ppg and hit the highest single-season number of 3-pointers in the history of the program, with 79. She has also earned a distinction as one of the top single-season season scorers of all time with 543. Rodgers was also named as the BIG EAST Freshman of the Year and received an Honorable Mention All-America from the Associated Press. She was named the BIG EAST rookie of the week five times and named to the BIG EAST weekly honor roll three times.

McNutt was named to the second team All-BIG EAST, completing the season with an average of 11.6 ppg. She also led the team in free-throw percentage shooting with 85.7% at the line.

Coach Terri Williams-Flournoy was named the 2010 Black Coaches and Administrators (BCA) Female Coach of the Year. The Hoyas were 13-0 at home and 26-7 overall.

HOYAS WIN BIG EAST CHAMPIONSHIP

The Georgetown Men's Golf Team stunned the nation with its BIG EAST Tournament win in April. This was the first BIG EAST Tournament win for the Men’s team since 1998 and only their second in the history of the program. Before it’s win, the team was ranked 11th out of the 12 teams in the tournament and 211th nationally. Many other teams in the tournament were ranked in the top 50 teams nationwide, but they were no match for the Hoyas.

The Hoyas ended with a 54-hole score 21 over par 873. Even with this impressive score, the Hoyas only managed to beat out the competition by one stroke. On the last hole, senior Vincenzo Salina captured the win for the Hoyas by sinking an 8-foot putt for par. Salina was the key player in the Hoyas’ victory and earned an individual title for his efforts. By the end of the tournament, he was in a four-way-tie for first place with a score of 2 over par.

Juniors Brandon Ellis and Danny Hathway and sophomores Brian Dorfman and Taylor Hall distinguished themselves throughout the tournament as well. Every member of the men’s golf team played his best to ensure the BIG EAST win. After the win, Golfweek named Georgetown the team of the week and coach Tommy Hunter was named the BIG EAST coach of the year. He celebrated his 25th anniversary with Georgetown this season. The Women’s team placed seventh overall at the BIG EAST Championship.
With a record of 24-31 overall and 5-22 in conference play, the Hoyas' season does not seem spectacular. However, some standout performances and outstanding individuals seem to question this logic. Before the season even began, junior catcher/designated hitter Erick Fernandez was named pre-season All-BIG EAST. He was named to the second team All-BIG EAST the previous year.

During the season's play, the Hoyas stunned both against Norfolk State University and the Naval Academy. A grand slam in the sixth inning from Andy Lentz, the Hoyas sailed past Norfolk with a 13-1 victory. Just a few weeks later, sophomore pitcher Bobby Kirby threw six scoreless innings to beat Navy 5-2.

Graduate student Tommy Lee was named to the ESPN the Magazine All-District 2 First Team. He maintained a .344 batting average and graduated from the MSB in 2009 with a 3.716 GPA. Fernandez was named to the third team All-BIG EAST, with a .317 batting average. He managed 5 home-runs and 13 doubles this season.

Overall, despite its disappointments, the Hoyas' season was very successful, as they won the Rollins College Baseball Week, as well as a series against powerhouse Notre Dame and a game against then No. 5 Louisville.

After the season ended, two of Georgetown's standout players were selected in the Major League Baseball (MLB) Draft. Senior pitcher Tim Adleman went in the 24th round to the Baltimore Orioles while teammate Erick Fernandez was selected by the Washington Nationals in the 46th round.

GEORGETOWN TAKES ON THE COMPETITION

The Hoyas outperformed the competition all season in both swimming and diving, especially at the BIG EAST Tournament. During the tournament, junior diver Caitlin Karniski placed 15th in the 1-meter consolation final competition. Junior Rebecca Jenkinson and sophomore Angela Pontes also competed in the women's diving competition. At the end of the swimming championship, the men placed eighth and the women placed ninth. Overall, the Hoyas broke twelve school records throughout the tournament, including the Men's 200 Butterfly and the Women's 400-meter Freestyle Relay.

Earlier in the season, Caitlin Karniski broke the school's records for both the 1 meter and the 3 meter dives at American University. The previous records were held by Jessica Rettig (2006) and Juliana Bonilla (2001), respectively.

Sophomore Victor Lopez-Cantera and senior Lindsay Vickroy earned the Hoyas' highest honors when they were awarded the Reverend Frank L. Fadner, S. J. Most Valuable Player award. This marked the second consecutive time that Lopez-Cantera has received this award. He led the Men's team to break five school records this season while breaking his own school record in the Men's 200-Meter Butterfly. Vickroy's record remains just as impressive, as she participated in four record-breaking relays this season and also broke one individual school record.
Swimming & Diving
To begin their amazing season, the Hoyas secured their season-opener win over Rider University, defeating them 8-0. Senior Jennifer Connell pitched a 3-hit shutout and the team exploded in the 4th inning with 5 runs. This was the first-ever win in a season-opener for the softball program.

Less than a week later, the Hoyas went on to defeat the Wright State Raiders 11-3 after garnering 10 runs in the 4th inning. This marked a promising start at the first game of the Frost Classic at the University of Tennessee Chattanooga.

Later in the season, senior third-baseman Demetria Cipriano drove in 4 runs in the Hoyas' 7-3 victory over Mount Saint Mary's to end the team's seven-game losing streak. A few weeks later, sophomore Mackensey Carter and junior Melissa Conners made a combined effort for the team's 1-hit shutout of George Mason University, defeating them 12-0 in the first game of the double-header. In the second game, Jennifer Connell pitched a 3-hit shutout in seven innings, leading the Hoyas to win 4-0. Unfortunately, the girls were unable to continue this excellence, as they fell to USF in the first round of the BIG EAST Championship Tournament.

Carter and Cipriano were both named to the BIG EAST Softball Weekly Honor Roll. Carter was also named to the All-BIG EAST Second Team Softball. This was her second nomination for the team. She held a .344 batting average throughout the season, tied for 10th in the conference.

The men's and women's tennis teams each had outstanding seasons this year. The men started out the year with an amazing showing at the Georgetown Classic at the McDonough Arena tennis facilities. Senior David Tillem defeated teammate Bryan Miller and Howard University's Chris Brown to make it to the final match. Unfortunately, he fell to George Washington's Chris Kushma. In the doubles competition, Andrew Bruhn and Charlie Caris advanced to the semi-finals.

At the Bruno Classic at Brown University, the Hoyas yet again displayed their amazing tennis skills. Caris finished with a perfect weekend with six wins in singles and doubles play. As a team, the Hoyas managed to sweep all three doubles matches with Boston College.

At the Navy Gold Invitational, Rafael Notario won a Singles Flight Championship while doubles teams Caris and Tillem and Tim Walsh and Will Lowell won Doubles Flight Championships. Caris and Tillem continued their excellence throughout the rest of the year, becoming the only nationally ranked doubles team in the history of the program. The ITA ranked them 39th in the nation.

Finally, the men competed in the BIG EAST Tournament, but were forced out in the first round after facing number two seed Notre Dame. This was the second year in a row that the Hoyas were forced out of the tournament by the Fighting Irish.

The girls also had an amazing showing this season. They managed to shut out rival Villanova 7-0 through performances by doubles teams Elizabeth Sullivan and Victoria Skeley and Michelle Pratt and Lauren Greco. In their season finale, the girls also managed to beat Seton Hall and sweep the doubles competition.
The men's lacrosse team had another amazing year. They were ranked second in the BIG EAST and tenth in the national poll. Senior Chris Nixon was named BIG EAST Defensive Player of the Year, as well as defensive player of the week. He was also named to the US Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association's North-South All-Star Game as well as the USILA Scholar All-America Team. Senior middle Scott Kocis was named to the BIG EAST Weekly Honor Roll as well as the USILA Third Team All-America.

Jack Davis, Brian Tabb, and Chris Nixon were all named BIG EAST Defensive Player of the Week, while teammates Travis Comeau and Rickey Mirabito were named BIG EAST Offensive Player of the Week. Chris Schuville, Travis Comeau, Andrew Brancaccio, and Scott Kocis were named to the BIG EAST Lacrosse Weekly Honor Roll.

Four of the top Georgetown lacrosse players entered and were picked in the Major League Lacrosse Collegiate Draft. Scott Kocis, Chris Nixon, Andrew Brancaccio, and Craig Dowd were picked in the third, fourth, fifth, and eighth rounds, respectively. Former Hoyas All-American Kyle Sweeney, who plays professional lacrosse for the Boston Cannons was selected to the US Men's Lacrosse Team for the FIL Championships. The US team defeated Canada to win the Championships. The final game pitted the US team, led by Sweeney, against the Canadian team, led by former Hoyas Brodie Merrill. Both were selected to the All-World Team after the tournament.

The 2009-2010 Track & Field season turned out to be great for the Hoyas with many student athletes advancing to the NCAA Track and Field Championships and the 2010 USA Outdoor Track and Field Championships.

Twelve Hoya athletes qualified for the NCAA Track and Field Championships in Eugene, Oregon in June. These athletes included Andrew Bumbalough, Mike Krisch, Chris Kinney, Lauren Gregory, and Rachel Schneider. The Hoyas also sent their first-ever 4x100 Women's Relay Team to the event. The team included Sarah Wernik, Amanda Kimbers, Tenille Stoudenmire, and Nene Kamate.

At the 2010 USA Outdoor Track & Field Championships in Des Moines, Iowa, many past and present Hoyas represented the university well. Lauren Gregory finished 13th in the Women's 3,000 Meter Steeplechase. Graduate student Andrew Bumbalough, seven-time All-American, finished third in the Men's 5000 Meter Run, the top collegiate finisher in the race. He came in behind the Nike and Oregon Track runners. Andrew also took third in the same race during the NCAA Championships. Andrew Bumbalough, Mike Krisch, Chris Kinney, and Christine Whalen were all honored as All-Americans by the Division I Outdoor Track & Field & Cross Country Coaches Association.

Renee Tomlin was named to the ESPN Magazine Academic First Team for district two. She is a 3-time BIG EAST academic all-star.

Amnesty International is a worldwide movement of people who campaign for internationally recognized human rights. Currently, it has over 2.2 million members in over 150 countries campaigning towards preventing and ending human rights abuses. This year, the Georgetown University chapter has focused its campaign against torture and extraordinary rendition.

The Mu Alpha Chapter of Alpha Phi Omega is the oldest existing community service organization on the campus of Georgetown University. Established in 1956, Mu Alpha enjoys a diverse brotherhood of men and women with members from every school and class year. Members pledge the organization in both the fall and the spring. They are expected to perform community service for the brotherhood, with projects ranging from Mary House to Samaritan Inns and Food for Friends.

The mission of Best Buddies is to enhance the lives of people with intellectual disabilities by providing opportunities for friendships and integrated employment. Our Georgetown chapter is part of the nonprofit organization Best Buddies International, which is active worldwide and positively impacts the lives of more than 350,000 individuals. Georgetown University Best Buddies is the largest college chapter in Washington, D.C. and is the birthplace of Best Buddies International. The precursor to Best Buddies was started by former Hoya Anthony Kennedy Shriver in the 1980s, who later founded Best Buddies International in 1989.
The American Cancer Society estimates that 1 out of every 8 women will develop breast cancer at some point in their lives. Georgetown University Breast Cancer Outreach is an organization that promotes awareness and fundraises to help fight against the most common form of cancer in women. Fundraising includes selling our wicked awesome t-shirts ("Think Pink", "Save Second Base"). Girls' and Guys' Night In (A fun-filled night with manicures, games, food and raffles), and volunteering at the Lombardi Gala (black tie, high-end auction). By promoting proactive attitudes towards prevention and support for breast cancer survivors, BCO proves that making a difference can be fun.

Since its inception, Georgetown Club Filipino has sought to promote, develop, and foster a greater awareness of and appreciation for the culture and concerns of Filipino communities here and abroad. We encourage all members of the Georgetown community to check us out!

Dance DC is an organization that teaches ballet, tap, and step dance to underprivileged children in Southeast D.C. It takes students into other areas of the city to help less-fortunate kids who may otherwise have been unable to attend dance classes.
D.C. Reads is a tutoring program for low-income children in the first through third grades who are not reading at grade level. D.C. Reads began in 1997 as a local response to the America Reads Challenge, a literacy initiative established to improve reading proficiency for all elementary students. America Reads Challenge allowed university students who are eligible for financial aid to receive work study funds to tutor children in reading.

D.C. Reads currently has approximately 60 Georgetown University students supporting the literacy development of approximately 75 of Washington, D.C.'s struggling readers in the primary grades. Tutors are paid through federal work study or volunteer their time.

The Georgetown Admissions Ambassador Program (GAAP) is a volunteer student-run organization dedicated to help prospective and accepted students to discover Georgetown. With a Board consisting of 15 students, State Chairs for every US state and many international countries, and a General Membership totaling over 600 students, GAAP is an active presence at Georgetown.

Georgetown Outreach for Learning and Education (GOLE) is a student organization in partnership with the Assistant to the President for DC Education Initiatives. In the absence of a formal department or school, we serve as a clearinghouse for all things related to the field of education at Georgetown University. They operate as a platform for communication and collaboration among Georgetown's 40 education outreach groups, and as a disseminator of information regarding program information, research opportunities and findings, on and off-campus events, as well as job and internship opportunities.
Groove Theory is Georgetown University's first co-ed hip hop group, founded in 2001. Since then, Groove Theory has frequented campus events such as Midnight Madness, Urban Fare, UnityLIVE, Diaspora, and Georgetown Day. Their rendition of Michael Jackson's 'Thriller' has become a Georgetown Halloween tradition. Most recently, Groove Theory won 1st place at the GeorgetownONE Dance Competition in 2006 and took 2nd place in 2007. Groove Theory has been successful off campus as well. They hold the titles of 2004, 2005, and 2006 ACDC National Hip-Hop Champions. For University of Maryland's Hip Hop Competition, Groove Theory took 1st place in 2005 and 2nd place in 2008. Groove Theory members are also dedicated to using their talents to inspire others to get involved in the performing arts.

As Georgetown's one and only all-girls international a cappella group, Harmony seeks to promote the diversity and beauty of international song. We sing in a wide array of popular and traditional styles from around the world. With a repertoire ranging from Enrique Iglesias to Jay Chou to Gabonese funeral songs, Harmony's got something for everyone! Some of our recent songs include:
- Arash (Iran)
- Freedom is Coming (South Africa)
- Ja Sei Namorar (Brazil)
- Je Fais de Toi Mon Essentiel (France)
- Kuch Kuch Hota Hai (India)
- La Camisa Negra (Colombia)
- Le Chemin (France)
- Meyango (Gabon)
- Mondjuba (Benin)
- Super Star (Taiwan)
- Wanting Memories (US)
- Yo Ya (Israel)

Georgetown University Pride is Georgetown's undergraduate organization for Lesbian, Gay, Bi, Trans, Queer/Questioning, and Allied (LGBTQA) Students. We also provide education, support and referral services to those exploring their sexual orientation and/or gender identity and other individuals sharing an interest in these issues.
WGTB was founded as the georgetown broadcasting system in 1946 by Rev. Francis Hayden, S.J. In its earliest incarnation, the station was primarily an outlet for news and public affairs programming. By the 1970s, the station had shifted course to music-oriented programming. WGTB became well-known throughout the Washington, DC metro area as a voice for new music, and more notably as a voice for the political left, broadcasting anti-war programming across a 60-mile radius. This stance was the source of considerable friction between the station and the university administration, resulting in several shutdowns, and eventually the end of WGTB.

In 1996, student Shan Vosseller led a drive to revive WGTB, and built the current studios located in the Leavey Center.

Since its humble beginnings as a 4-man club with one mysteriously-acquired grill, GUGS has grown into one of Georgetown's most popular social collectives. Unlike certain other celebrities, GUGS hasn't let fame go to its head, and it to this day stays true to its creed. The members come first, fun comes second, while food conveniently binds them together.

Spring of 2004, GUGS was co-named Outstanding Student Organization of the Year. In the fall of 2004, GUGS shared the 1st place award for Best Traditions during the Georgetown Traditions Day competition. It is without a doubt that with the continuing support of our members and fans, the Grilling Society will continue to thrive in the Georgetown community, bringing good food and good atmosphere to students, faculty, administration, and visitors alike!

Founded in 1998, GUTV is an entirely student-run television station that offers 24-hour broadcasting on RCN Channel 60 and access to student programming and all of the hottest campus events. In addition to producing and broadcasting student productions and submissions, GUTV sponsors an annual Film Festival each April, where Georgetown student films and shorts are premiered in front of a general audience. GUTV's largest production is the Graduation Video Package, which includes a 20-minute video of Georgetown's Senior Week and the taped and live-edited Commencement ceremonies of each school of Georgetown University.

GUTV also covers Georgetown news, shoots campus events, and produces its very own television shows that are produced, filmed, and edited by students.
The Hoya has been Georgetown University's newspaper of record since 1920. It is the oldest and largest student newspaper at Georgetown, serving a wide and diverse community of students, faculty, staff, alumni, and residents of the greater Washington, D.C. community.

The Hoya appears in print on Tuesdays and Fridays during the academic year, excluding university-recognized holidays. The Hoya also publishes throughout the week on its Web site, www.thehoya.com, the central online destination for Georgetown news.

For nine decades, The Hoya has served a critical role at Georgetown, providing constant and in-depth news coverage. Interviews with university presidents, Hoyas basketball legends and even the Beatles have been published in its pages.

InterHall is Georgetown University's Inter-Residence Hall Council. Founded in 1997, InterHall seeks to give students the power and responsibility to improve residence life. With representatives from every class and every hall, InterHall puts residents first and champions their interests.

What do you like about your residence hall? What would you like to change? InterHall strives to be an advocate for students to the administration and campus as a whole, and we fight for your needs and wants. We are strong promoters of community development and growth, and our initiatives and events help to create strong bonds between all residents and their community on campus.

Welcome to the Iranian Cultural Society of Georgetown University! Every year the ICS aims to increase the Georgetown community's awareness of Iranian culture by organizing events that allow interested students, faculty and staff to learn more about Iranian history, society, language and tradition.

Whether they are enjoying tea and sweets during our Farsi chats, dining on rice and kabob while watching a classic Iranian film, listening to a prominent expert discuss current events on Iran, or celebrating the Persian New Year (Norouz), members of the Iranian Cultural Society have multiple opportunities to expand their insight on the oldest civilization in the world.
The Georgetown International Relations Club (GIRC), one of the oldest and largest student organizations on the Georgetown University campus, came into being in 1923. Known first as the Current Affairs Club, and then renamed as the International Relations Club in 1932, the organization aims to offer its members and the University community opportunities for education and reflection on international affairs through engagement with expert sources and simulation of the international system through such activities as Model United Nations and other related programs. GIRC sponsors numerous lecture and discussion events on campus, provides staff for a variety of international affairs conferences and university programs, and operates one of the most successful competitive Model United Nations teams at the collegiate level.

The Georgetown University Korean Students Association attempts to unite students of Korean descent throughout campus. It hosts many events and social functions for its members to feel more at home within the Georgetown community.

The Mask and Bauble Dramatic Society prides itself on being the oldest continuously running student theatrical society in the United States. Mask and Bauble was founded in 1852 as The Dramatic Association of Georgetown College. In 1884, the Association's production of Richard II was an American debut. During the Roosevelt Administration, the club frequently performed at the White House and provided much of the technical staff for press conferences. Today, Mask and Bauble continues to present quality college theater while providing an outlet through which students can learn about and participate in the performing arts.
The Georgetown Mock Trial team is a competition-based club that attends Mock Trial tournaments around the country during the year in preparation for the National competitions during the spring. Mock Trial is basically what it sounds like: participants assume "lawyer" and "witness" roles and prepare their roles for competitions, where we perform in front of local judges or lawyers. Each competition—whether a non-merit-based invitational or the Regional or National tournaments—has four trials in it against four other schools. We compete as either Plaintiff/Prosecution or Defense, alternating rounds. We receive the case materials from the American Mock Trial Association (AMTA), and then begin to practice for the tournaments.

The Muslim Students Association of Georgetown University is an organization comprised of Muslim students, and serves to unite the Muslim student community through a series of spiritual, educational and social activities. As the only organization currently on Georgetown's campus that deals with Muslim students, it also helps to ensure that some of the needs of Muslim students are met. For many, it fills the role of being a home away from home.

New this year, NAS (NAS Arab Society) is established for the purpose of developing an understanding and appreciation of Arab culture. They hosted many events, including discussions at a local hookah bar, a comedy night, and the annual Harakat Arab culture show.
The Georgetown University Pep Band is a student musical organization that performs at GU Sporting Events as well as other special functions. We perform at all home football games, women's basketball games, and men's basketball games.

SJP believes that while the Palestinian people must ultimately be able to decide their future in Palestine, certain key principles, grounded in international law, human rights, and basic standards of justice, are fundamental to a just resolution of the plight of the Palestinians. These include the full decolonization of all illegally held Palestinian lands, the end of the Israeli occupation of the Gaza Strip, the West Bank, and East Jerusalem. Furthermore, we believe in a just and fair resolution to the Palestinian right of return and repatriation of Palestinian refugees, as well as an end to the Israeli system of discrimination against the indigenous Palestinian population. Just as SJP condemns the discrimination underlying the policies and laws of the state of Israel, SJP rejects and condemns any form of hatred or discrimination against any religious, racial, or ethnic group.

Students Stopping the Trafficking of People (SSTOP) is a student organization at Georgetown University and was founded in April 2004 by a small group of young women who were empowered to do something about the issue of human trafficking. The purpose of SSTOP is to raise awareness, educate each other and other students, provide service to survivors of trafficking within the DC community, fundraise for elected organizations, and take this issue to the global level.
The chapter at Georgetown brings a variety of new opportunities for engaging in real change around the world. This year, the Georgetown chapter will be raising awareness of issues facing neglected regions of the world, while also improving conditions for the students at the Mashlati Primary School in Limpopo, South Africa.

United Feminists is dedicated to combating influences of sexism and gender discrimination both on and off Georgetown's campus. We will do educational and awareness-raising programming along with social events and we will advocate on behalf of issues relating to women's rights and fighting sexual and gender discrimination in all forms. We will promote networking among women's and gender groups, organizations, and individuals who are active in the women's and gender movement; strengthen solidarity among groups and individuals and encourage women (trans- and ally-inclusive) to organize; generate, communicate, and disseminate knowledge about women's and gender issues as widely as possible; and seek to validate the different cultural forms of communication which women use and promote transformative cultural practices, norms, and values.

The Georgetown Voice is the student-run weekly campus newsmagazine of Georgetown University, and was founded in March 1969.
Georgetown University Women of Color supports and encourages the leadership of women while acknowledging the unique intersection of race and gender. We are a group of undergraduates who aim to create a social network for women of color and all other interested students with the goals of unity, self-development, and self-respect. In addition, we aim to see the women of the group take active roles and establish themselves as leaders and role models in the community of Georgetown as well as the greater DC area.

It is time to take pride in the color of your skin, in the curves of your body, and in the talents that brought you to Georgetown. Join the group that seeks the revitalization and empowerment of everything that makes you who you are.

The Georgetown yearbook began in 1908. It is made up of a small, highly dedicated group of students that work on the book all year long. The book recently expanded its coverage of underclassmen in an attempt to cover more of the Georgetown community. Student positions include photographers, section editors, staffers, and business managers. Without the help of everyone on staff and the students for submitting photos, YeDomesday book could never have reached this level of excellence. Thanks Everyone!!

On October 6th, 2009, fellow Hoya Arielle DaCosta passed away suddenly while studying abroad in Salamanca, Spain. This was her third study abroad trip, as she loved languages and traveling around the world. She loved her time at Georgetown, her family, friends, and of course, the animals. While at Georgetown, she focused her time on Relay for Life and her radio program with WGTB. At home, Arielle enjoyed music, reading, swimming, baking, and horseback riding. She played the piano and guitar, but preferred listening to Taylor Swift. A loving, caring individual, Arielle always tried to make everyone feel special. She loved to bake for her friends and worked with animal rights charities. With her death, the Georgetown community has lost a part of itself, and she will be greatly missed by all.

We Miss You, Arielle

"Another turning point
A fork stuck in the road
Time grabs you by the wrist
Directs you where to go
So make the best of this test
And don't ask why
It's not a question
But a lesson learned in time

It's something unpredictable
But in the end is right
We hope you had the time of your life."

Suzie - You made us proud!

All our love, Mum, Dad, Chris & Max.
Richard T. Sweeney III

Richard,

Congratulations! As parents and siblings, we are extremely proud of you and your accomplishments. Your hard work, dedication, commitment, loyalty, caring spirit and determination define who you are: a fine young man and truly a man for others.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Sabrina, Laura and Frank

Anthony Muki Tan

Congratulations Anthony,

We thank God for all the talents He has given you. May you give back everything that God has entrusted you to His Glory. We love you very much.

James Dailey

Jimmy Atticus,
From Blossom to Drummer Boy to our National Anthem to Bridge Over Troubled Water to Bertram Cates to my son the British pimp to Chime #224 and so much more, you've been entertaining us all your life. Please don't ever stop! Lots of love from your many fans including Mom, Dad, Sarah, Matt and Kaillie.
Darling Alicia,

Ever since we knew that we were going to be blessed with a baby girl, we knew that you were going to grow up to be someone very special. Having been born to a military family at Walter Reed, moving many times, and attending seven different schools prior to Georgetown, you have been the embodiment of resilience.

Always remember that you are loved. Abuela, Grandma, Calocho, Sylvia, Gabriel Jaime, Tim, Brian, Mary, Beata and all your extended family cherish you. We love you and always will.

Mommy and Daddy
Matthew Despres

Matthew,
Congratulations on a job well done. We are so proud of you. What a wonderful experience you have had at Georgetown. Your study abroad in Turkey, and your time in Egypt are an experience of a lifetime. Always remember to follow your dreams.

Love,
Mom and Dad
Congratulations Jason!

We are so proud of you and your accomplishments!

Wishing you love, happiness and success. Good luck as you continue to follow your dreams!

Your loving family
Hi, I'm Ashley Angelotti and I have been working on the 2010 yearbook throughout the school year and summer break. This has been an amazing opportunity for me to create a book for all of you and I appreciate the opportunity. I would like to thank everyone that helped me, including my advisor, Erika Cohen-Derr and my Jostens representatives, Steve Sweet and Dee Skelton, without whom this book may never have come to fruition. My family was also essential to the production of this book, as they put up with my need to work on the yearbook at all times.

Thanks to everyone and I just hope that you enjoy looking at this book as much as I have enjoyed making it for you.
