Every year, Georgetown students find new and interesting ways to enjoy their Halloween. Trick-or-treating on Embassy Row is always a favorite pastime, especially for underclassmen. Others trick-or-treat for Unicef or just for themselves. Copley Formal Lounge always hosts an interesting party, complete with games, dancing, and the always-enjoyable costume contest. Many students also love to host their own parties for friends.

The most popular event, of course, is always the yearly showing of the Exorcist in Healey’s Gaston Hall. The movie remains close to the hearts of Hoyas everywhere as it was shot in the Georgetown neighborhood. The book was written by a Georgetown graduate, William Peter Blatty.
Throughout the school year, thousands of current and former Georgetown students of all ages flock to watch their fellow Hoyas dominate in sports from basketball to volleyball and soccer. They sing the fight song and reminisce about the current and past glory days of Georgetown sports. The homecoming tailgate and football game are always favorites for students and alumni, as are the season’s notable home basketball games, including those against PITI, UCONN, and Syracuse. For some events, the pep band and other fans even travel throughout the country to support our teams.

All undergraduate Georgetown students attend one of four different schools: the school of Nursing and Health Studies, the Business School, the School of Foreign Service, or the College. Each school has a different feel, but all Georgetown students share a common bond.

Within the past few years, the McDonough School of Business opened its own new Rafik Hariri building with state of the art technology, an auditorium, and break area. It soon became one of students' favorite places to study on campus.

Since then, the university also broke ground on the new science center, which will greatly increase the capacity for labs, professors, classes, and students in the fields of biology, chemistry, and physics, among others.

If you get up early on weekday mornings you may have seen the Georgetown ROTC students at their morning P.T. workouts. You may know them as the flag carriers at sporting events and graduation. ROTC cadets also honor Georgetown on veteran’s day every year. But, ROTC students do so much more than just what we can see on the surface. They attend a special class to learn more about being an army officer. These students also trek out to an army base multiple times every semester to run drills, train, and, most importantly, learn. The summer before senior year, cadets are required to go to camp. Now, graduating seniors are off to BOLC, the Basic Officer Leadership Course, so that the Army can prepare them even more for the task ahead.

HOYA SAXA

It's been so long since last we met,

Lie down forever, lie down;
Or have you any money to bet.

Lie down forever, lie down,
There goes old Georgetown,
Straight for a touchdown.
See how they gain ground.

Lie down forever, lie down,
Lie down forever, lie down.

Rah! Rah! Rah!
Hurray for Georgetown.
Cheer for victory today.
Ere the sun has sunk to rest.

In the clouds will proudly float
The Blue and Gray.

We've heard those loyal fellows up at Yale.

Brag and boast about their Book.

We've heard the Navy yell.

We've listened to Cornell.

We've heard the songs of Harvard tell.

How Crimson lines could hold them.

Choo Choo, Rah! Rah! Dear old Holy Cross.

The proud old Princeton tiger
To never at a loss.

But the yell of all the yells.

The yell that wins the day,

Is the HOYA, HOYA SAXA.

For the dear old Blue and Gray.

It's been so long since last we met.

Lie down forever, lie down;
Or have you any money to bet;

Lie down forever, lie down,
There goes old Georgetown,
Straight for a rebound.
See how they gain ground.

Lie down forever, lie down,
Lie down forever, lie down.
The Georgetown University football team had an amazing year as they glided to a four-win season, defeating Marist, Lafayette, Davidson, and Holy Cross. The team also took Wagner into double overtime before allowing a final touchdown.

Throughout the season, many different individual players were honored by the Patriot League on multiple occasions. Junior defensive end Andrew Schaetzke was named the Patriot League defensive player of the week as well as the FCS national defensive player of the week. Senior SLOT Keerome Lawrence and junior quarterback Scott Darby were both named Patriot League offensive players of the week. Sophomore Jeremy Moore was named the special teams player of the week as well.

Junior cornerback Jayah Kaisamba and freshman punter Matt MacZura each earned Weekly Performer of the Week Honorable Mention distinctions from CollegeFootballPerformance.com. Schaetzke and Kaisamba were named to the All Patriot League First Team while Jeremy Moore and senior Nick Parrish were named to the second team.

These nominations set a program high for the department, surpassing the three players that were named to the All Patriot League in 2003, 2004, and 2005. This is also the first time that the Hoyas have had two players named to the first team. Three of the four players named All Patriot League are returning next season.

Senior running back Philip Oladeji was named to the Patriot League All Academic Team. He is a two-year starting running back and led the Hoyas rushing attack with 400 yards on 88 carries. Nick Parrish was also selected to play in the inaugural FCS Senior Scout Bowl. He will be playing for the South squad.

At the end of the season, the football team honored its many seniors. They are: OL Erik Antico, OL Rob Bates, DL George Cullen, DB Frank DiTommaso, DL Shane Isdaner, DL ShaBazz Kelton, SLOT Keerome Lawrence, LB Patrick O'Donnell, RB Philip Oladeji, LB Nick Parrish, RB Gysii Parrish, LB Paul Sant'Ambrogio, RB Geoffrey Schnorr, OL Dan Semler, and DL Danny Thompson, Jr.

The Hoya volleyball season shot off to an amazing start as senior Vanessa Dorismond was named to the All-BIG EAST Preseason Team. It was the first preseason honor for Dorismond, who was named to the All-BIG EAST Second Team during her sophomore year on the hilltop. Dorismond finished the previous season with the most points of anyone else on the team. Overall, the Hoyas were selected to finish twelfth out of the league's fifteen teams.

After the first game, the Hoyas stumbled in the DC Challenge tournament and the Maryland Invitational but came back to sweep three straight wins in the Blackbird Invitational. They were also able to defeat both Binghamton and East Carolina in the Georgetown Classic before falling to Furman.

The Hoyas continued their amazing performance until their matchup with Syracuse, which seemed to dull their thunder. They were defeated in seven of their last nine games, including in their last against Villanova. However, they were able to come in one place ahead of the preseason predictions, finishing eleventh out of fifteen.

Many individual players were also honored throughout the season. Sophomore Lindsay Wise was named to the BIG EAST Weekly Honor Roll for two consecutive weeks this season. Dorismond was also named to the BIG EAST Honor Roll. She also earned a spot on the BIG EAST Volleyball Second Team. After the end of the season, Dorismond toured Europe in search of a professional contract. Her time abroad assured her that playing in Europe is the best choice for her future. Good Luck Vanessa!
The Hoyas saw a number of fantastic performances at the Georgetown Classic to open the fall season. The six-team tournament is one of the three major fall tennis events. All four men's pairs won at least one match in doubles play. Junior Michael Clarke and freshman Casey Distaso advanced to the championship match but fell in the finals. In singles play, Clarke made it to the semifinals before losing to his opponent.

At the Navy Gold Invitational, Casey Distaso and partner junior Brian Ward won the number three doubles while freshman Alex Friedlich and senior Tim Walsh both took singles championships. The Hoyas fell to VCU and Campbell University in their opening match of the spring season. However, the Hoyas soon gained momentum and swept Eckerd College. They managed six two-set victories in singles play. The team moved on to defeat St. John’s to earn its first BIG EAST win of the year. Unfortunately, the team was quickly pushed out of the BIG EAST tournament after facing top-seeded Notre Dame in the consolidation match, the Hoyas fell to Marquette.

The women also had a successful year on the Hilltop. They opened the fall season with the Georgetown Classic, where graduate student Stephanie Wetmore won the singles title and joined teammate Vicky Sekely to take the doubles title as well.

In the team’s first match against George Mason University, senior Alex Sebia won the deciding game to push the Hoyas to victory. Wetmore also won the number one singles spot.

In the spring, the ladies won six consecutive matches to improve the team’s ranking going into the BIG EAST tournament. Junior Lauren Greco was named the BIG EAST Tennis Player of the Week. She was the first Hoya on either tennis team to receive the honor this year. The women also fell to top-seeded Notre Dame in the BIG EAST Tournament and managed to finish sixth. Graduate student Stephanie Wetmore was named All-BIG EAST, making her the first under the team’s current head coach.
Both the men and women’s golf teams had an excellent year with truly standout performances.

The men’s team opened the fall season in third place out of six teams at the Navy Fall Classic. They then moved on to finish tenth and fifth at the Gridiron Classic and Renaissance Invitational, respectively.

The Hoyas continued their impressive performance by placing fifth at the Richmond Invitational and tenth at the Georgetown Intercollegiate, finishing their fall season in style. The men opened the spring season well too, finishing fifteenth at the C & F Bank Intercollegiate tournament. The Hoyas continued this high-quality performance at the Towson Invitational, where they finished fourth, and the Wildcat Invitational, where they finished seventh. At the Princeton Invitational, the Hoyas fired their best round of the spring, finishing in third place overall. At the end of the first round, sophomore Curtis Loop was tied for eleventh place in the individual rankings.

After tying for third place in the first day of the BIG EAST tournament, the men fell to eleventh in the second round. However, in a tournament-best showing in the final round, the Hoyas were able to lift themselves back into fourth place. Sophomore golfer Curtis Loop, a transfer student, was honored as a selection to the All-BIG EAST team. He was one of twelve student athletes to receive this honor. Loop led the Hoyas in stroke average and tied for first in the number of rounds played. Overall, he earned three top-ten finishes this season as well as five among the top-twenty and nine among the top-forty.

The women had a similarly impressive season. They placed fourth at the Princeton invitational to start the year off right. At the Badger tournament and Xavier Invitational, the women were able to hold off their opponents and finish in seventh place. The girls improved in their performance from the Lady Pirate Intercollegiate and moved on to finish sixth at the Tribe Invitational to finish out their fall season.

In the spring, the Hoyas opened the season with a tenth-place finish at the Barefoot Beach Challenge and fifteenth place at the JMU/Eagle Landing Invitational. They moved on to place ninth in the C&F Bank Intercollegiate and fifth in the Georgetown Invitational. After the first round of the BIG EAST tournament, the Hoyas were in second place. However, by the end of the three-day event, they fell to fourth overall. Over the summer, junior Joan Dulieu and sophomores Audrey Dalton and Jordan Redfield were selected to the National Golf Coaches Association All-American Scholar Team. In order to qualify, each student must maintain a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.50 and compete in at least half of all team rounds.
Hoyas Take on the Seas

The Hoyas had an amazing swimming and diving season this year. It began with the Potomac Relays, in which the team finished in first place overall. The Hoyas competed against six other teams, with the men's team taking first place and the women finishing in third. The men took victories in the 200-yard medley relay, 800-yard freestyle relay, 500-yard freestyle relay, and 200-yard freestyle relay. The women placed second in the 300-yard butterfly, and in the top four in seven other events.

At the BIG EAST Quad Meet, Paul Quincy and Victor Lopez-Cantera had two wins apiece. Lauren Opatrny earned a victory in the women's 100-yard freestyle, just in front of her Villanova opponent. Sam Kietlinski finished second in the 200-yard freestyle for the Hoyas. The women's 400 freestyle relay team finished less than a second behind Villanova, to take second. Thomas Graham finished in second in the 100-yard backstroke. Ray Zomerfeld won the 200-yard individual medley. The 200-yard freestyle relay team earned a third place finish. The Hoyas also captured second and third place in the 400-yard medley.

At the Patriot Invitational, Paul Quincy broke three school records, Sam Kietlinski broke one and tied one, and Lauren Opatrny broke one as the Hoyas men raced to fifth place and the women took fourth. Opatrny's time beat the previous school record for the 400-yard individual medley by almost five seconds. She advanced to the championship round and placed eighth. Megan Harvey finished second in the championship for the women's 100-yard fly. Victor Lopez-Cantera finished in third place in the men's version of this event.

At the BIG EAST championships, the men placed eighth and the women placed tenth overall. For the men, Paul Quincy reached the finals for the 1650-yard freestyle event, finishing fourth. Victor Lopez made it for the 200-yard butterfly and finished sixth. Senior Caitlin Karniski competed in the NCAA Zone Regionals. To get there, she had to perform better than any other diver in Hoyas history. Against George Washington, she broke two school diving records, one of which was her own. She finished eleventh in the BIG EAST championships.

The Georgetown men’s head lacrosse coach, Dave Urick, was named the recipient of Howdy Myers Man of the Year Award by the United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association (USILA). He coached seventeen championship teams at St. Paul’s, Johns Hopkins, and Hofstra Universities. He was also elected to the Lacrosse Hall of Fame in 1971.

The Hoya players also had an amazing year. They were ranked fourteenth in the nation at the start of the season and two teammates, Barney Ehrmann and Travis Comeau, were selected to the All-BIG EAST Preseason Team. Fellow Hoya Jack Davis was named BIG EAST Defensive Player of the week shortly after the first game. Davey Emala, Rickey Mirabito, and Brian Tabb were named to the BIG EAST Men’s Lacrosse Weekly Honor Roll. Emala and Mirabito were also named the BIG EAST Offensive Player of the Week. Ehrmann was named to the All-BIG EAST Men’s Lacrosse First Team. He was also named USILA All America Honorable Mention.

The women’s team got off to an even better start. Its incoming freshman recruiting class was ranked first in the nation by Inside Lacrosse. It was also selected first in the BIG EAST preseason poll and seventh nationwide in the IWLCA Preseason Poll. Unfortunately, they dropped their first three games, all of which were played against top ranked teams. However, they were able to hand Loyola its first loss of the season. These performances dropped the Hoyas to twentieth place, but they rebounded to defeat thirteenth-ranked Syracuse. The team was ranked first in the BIG EAST tournament after clinching the conference’s regular season title. They fell in the semifinals.

Individual Hoyas achieved personal honors this season. Sophomore midfielder Sophia Thomas, senior co-captain attacker Jordy Kirr, freshman goalkeeper Barb Black, and senior Logan McCraw were named to the BIG EAST Weekly Honor Roll. Sophomore attacker Dina Jackson was named the BIG EAST Offensive Player of the Week.

The women’s lacrosse team also earned outstanding post-season honors. Jordy Kirr was selected for the BIG EAST All-Tournament Squad. Teammates Logan McCraw and Sophia Thomas both earned BIG EAST Player of the Year honors. They were both also named All-America by the Intercollegiate Women’s Lacrosse Coaches’ Association.
Track & Field
In the USTFCCCA Preseason Cross Country Poll, The Hoya women were selected seventh and the men sixteenth overall. With amazing early performances, the women quickly moved into seventh place nationwide, as the men fell to twenty-fifth. By late October, the women's ranking moved all the way to fifth place as the men moved up a few positions as well. The women won pre-nationals as the men finished sixth.

In the BIG EAST Cross Country Championship, the women placed seven in the top twenty overall and finished in second place as a team, just behind Villanova. They then moved on to take second at the NCAA Regional while the men placed third. Twelve Hoya student athletes were selected All-Mid-Atlantic Region by the USTFCCCA.

The women's indoor track team was ranked twenty-first in the preseason poll. They finished fourth overall at the 2010 NCAA Championships, led by Emily Infeld, Georgetown's first-ever NCAA runner-up. The men's team finished twenty-ninth overall at the competition. Both teams earned All-Academic status.

At the BIG EAST outdoor track & field championships, Renee Tomlin won the eight hundred meter and the women's 4x800 meter team came in first as well. Tomlin was then named to the Capital One Academic All-District 2 Women's Track and Field First Team.

Emily Infeld took second place at the NCAA Championships, setting a new record in the Women's 5,000 meter. She was named as a BIG EAST Cross Country Female Athlete of the Week and took second place in the NCAA Division I Cross Country Championship. She also took second place in the NCAA Women's Division One Cross Country Championship.

At the end of the outdoor season, the Hoyas came away with five first and second team all-American honors. The women's team made its first top-twenty-five appearance in the past decade.
Men's Basketball

The Hoyas brought the season to an amazing start as they came in ranked twentieth in the nation and fourth in the BIG EAST for the preseason. Senior Austin Freeman was selected to the Wooden Award Preseason Top 50 and the Blue Ribbon Yearbook BIG EAST Preseason Player of the Year. He was also named as the general BIG EAST Preseason Player of the Year.

Georgetown made some quick wins in the early part of the season, allowing the Hoyas to quickly move into sixteenth place overall. They then blew past number nine Missouri in overtime, winning with a score of 111. Moving into tenth place, Georgetown then dominated number sixteen Memphis by over fifteen points.

The Hoyas were able to keep up their momentum and take down number twelve Syracuse as well. Unfortunately, toward the end of the season, senior guard and starter Chris Wright injured his left (non-shooting hand) and was forced to undergo surgery. He was kept out for a majority of the rest of the season but was able to return before the championships.

In the BIG EAST tournament, Georgetown fell to UCONN in the first game. The Hoyas were nine and eight in the BIG EAST before tournament play began. In the NCAA tournament, Georgetown earned a spot as a sixth seed. They fell to VCU in the second round.

Certain members of the team also had an amazing year individually. Senior standout Austin Freeman was named to the BIG EAST Weekly Honor Roll four times this season and a spot as the BIG EAST Player of the Week. Freeman was also selected to be a part of the Wooden Award Midseason List. He was chosen to play in the NABC All-Star Game as well. Freeman was also named All-BIG EAST First Team and won the Associated Press All-American Honors.

Freeman’s teammate, guard Chris Wright, was the other standout star of the year. He was named to the BIG EAST Weekly Honor Roll three times and made the BIG EAST Player of the Week as well. Wright also earned a spot on the All-BIG EAST Third Team.
Women's Basketball

Before the start of the regular season, Hoyas Sugar Rodgers was named to the WBCA Preseason ‘Wade Watch’ List and the Wooden Women’s Preseason Top 30. She was also named Preseason All-BIG EAST. The team debuted at number thirteen in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches’ Poll as well as in the Associated Press Preseason Poll. They were ranked third in the BIG EAST Coaches’ Poll.

The team started the season off strong, winning its first four games before falling to the University of Missouri in an upset at the Paradise Jam. However, the Hoyas were still able to come back and defeat number four Tennessee and win the Paradise Jam. The team climbed to eleventh in the polls before falling to Miami and Rutgers, dropping them to nineteenth place overall.

The Hoyas were ranked eighth in the BIG EAST Tournament. They fell to top-seeded UCONN. Sugar Rodgers and senior Monica McNutt each earned All-BIG EAST Honors at the conference. Rodgers was honored with her second unanimous selection to the First Team All-BIG EAST. She scored her 1,000th-career point this season. McNutt also earned her second postseason honor. She was named honorable mention in the conference. She is the team’s second leading scorer.

The team then earned a spot as the fifth seed in the NCAA Tournament. They defeated Princeton in the first game and moved into the Sweet Sixteen. Unfortunately, the Hoyas played top-seeded UCONN in this round and fell just short of an upset.

Sugar Rodgers was the star player of the year. She earned multiple spots on the BIG EAST Weekly Honor Roll and one honor as the BIG EAST Player of the Week. Rodgers then gained a position on the Wooden Award Midseason Top 20 and the Naismith Midseason Top 30. At this point, she ranked twenty-seventh in the nation in overall scoring. Rodgers then earned her second career All-America honor. She was also named Honorable Mention in the State Farm Coaches’ All-American Poll.
Baseball

Georgetown University opened its season strong when Erick Fernandez was selected to the Preseason All-BIG EAST. He was preparing for the senior year as the team's star catcher when the news was announced. Fernandez had been selected in the 46th round by the Washington Nationals in the 2010 Major League Baseball Draft but chose to return for his final year on the Hilltop.

The Hoyas continued their amazing run with a 9-5 win at Davison to open the season. Junior Rand Ravnaas then gave amazing performances against Northwestern and Delaware State to earn recognition as the BIG EAST Player of the Week for two straight weeks. He was also named to the BIG EAST Weekly Honor Roll.

Georgetown improved from a 0-4 deficit to defeat Princeton and complete a three-game sweep for the Hoyas. It was the first three-game sweep for the Hoyas since they defeated Yale in 2005.

Sophomore shortstop Mike Garza continued the Hoyas' tradition of excellence this season and was named to the BIG EAST Weekly Honor Roll after helping Georgetown to four wins in the previous week. He then helped to drive in four runs, pushing the Hoyas to their seventh-straight win.

At the end of the season, Ravnaas was named to the All-BIG EAST First Team. Fernandez along with senior third baseman Sean Lamont were named to the All-BIG EAST Third Team. Ravnaas was the first Hoya selected to the first team since 2005. He led the team in batting (sixth in the league), hits, doubles, slugging percentage, on-base percentage, and stolen bases. He tied for the lead in home runs and triples. This was Fernandez's third straight All-BIG EAST honor. The Washington Nationals subsequently selected Fernandez in the 25th round of the 2011 Major League Baseball Draft for a second time. The Pittsburgh Pirates selected Ravnaas in the 39th round.

The Hoyas had a great opening to their season when they defeated Saint Louis after losing the first two matches. The Hoyas closed out the FCGU Tournament that opened the season with another loss. They moved on to the Carolina Classic, where the girls were able to defeat NC State after losing to Penn State. Superb teamwork and outstanding performances by Mackensey Carter and Cara Savarese gave the Hoyas the edge they needed to defeat UNC Wilmington and claim third place in the Lowcountry Invitational. The tournament improved the Hoyas' record to 3-11 overall.

The team moved on from this amazing finish to overwhelm Delaware in a 11-6 victory. Carter continued her excellent performance by pitching her first complete-game shutout of the season to help the Hoyas to a victory over Robert Morris. Carter then passed the spotlight to senior Jillian Webb. She hit a pair of three-run home runs to defeat Providence 8-5. This marked her third home run of the season.

Individually, the Hoyas represented the Hilltop well in the BIG EAST conference. Cara Savarese was named to the BIG EAST Weekly Honor Roll after assisting the Hoyas in their third place finish in the Lowcountry Invitational. After the tournament, she ranked fifth in the BIG EAST in batting average (.444).

Teammate Mackensey Carter was also named to the BIG EAST Weekly Honor Roll. For the second consecutive year, Carter earned a spot on the All-BIG EAST Second Team. This is the third consecutive year that the junior has received conference honors in the postseason. This was the third season that Hoya softball has been in the BIG EAST conference.
Sports College
Sophomore Laura Thistle runs down the field.
The Hoyas opened the season very well, winning their first three games in a row. Briana Pereira and Catherine Shugrue even earned BIG EAST preseason honors. Shugrue even scored three goals in the team’s second game to defeat Bryant. Both students also earned spots on the conference’s BIG EAST Weekly Honor Roll. Annie Wilson, Annika Bannon, and Charlotte Tierney were also named to the BIG EAST Weekly Honor Roll throughout the season. Unfortunately, the Hoyas were unable to continue this amazing winning streak and fell to Providence in their fourth game.

The Georgetown field Hockey team earned the team academic award and had eight students named to the 2010 Gladiator by SGI/NFHCA Division I National Academic Squad. Senior Annika Bannon, junior Kalli Krumpos, sophomores Kimberly Keating, Claire Mittermiller, Briana Pereira, Annie Wilson, and Kathryn Wingo, and freshman Caitlin Samela were all named to the team. In order to qualify, each student athlete must maintain a cumulative grade point average of at least 3.30 in the first semester of the academic year. Seven of the students have been previously honored with this distinction. The team was awarded for maintaining a team grade point average of 3.0 or higher. The Hoyas finished the season with six wins and thirteen losses. They did not win any games in the BIG EAST conference.
Women's Soccer

The Georgetown women's soccer team had a fantastic run this season as they made it to the quarterfinal NCAA championship match. At the beginning of the season, the Hoyas were ranked third overall in the BIG EAST Conference's National Division. Redshirt junior Ingrid Wells and junior Kelly D'Ambrisi were both selected to the All-BIG EAST Preseason Team. The team reached fifteenth in the nationwide NSCAA rankings after finishing seven straight wins at the beginning of the season. The Hoyas clinched the second seed spot in the BIG EAST tournament. Their tournament play opened with a win after defeating DePaul. Unfortunately, the team fell to USF in the quarterfinals. The Hoyas were also selected to participate in the NCAA championship. They crushed Siena in the first round with a score of 5-1, and defeated Maryland during penalty kicks to advance to the Sweet Sixteen. Samantha Baker's goal in the 89th minute lifted the Hoyas past Minnesota and advanced them to the NCAA quarterfinals. The team fell to Ohio State in the quarterfinals with a score of 2-0. Wells and D'Ambrisi were later named BIG EAST Offensive Players of the Week. D'Ambrisi was a top scorer, accounting for five of the team's eight goals in two games. Freshmen Alexa St. Martin and Kaitlin Brenn were selected as BIG EAST Rookies of the Week. Camille Trujillo, Ingrid Wells, and Samantha Baker were named to the conference's weekly honor roll. Baker was also named to as a Prime Time Performer by CollegeSoccer360.com. Three members of the Hoya team were selected to the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) ESPN Academic All-District II University Division teams. Each student must maintain at least a 3.3 GPA. Seniors Jackie Desjardin and Caitlin Durkee were selected to the first team, while senior Michaela Buonomo was selected for the second team. Desjardin was also named to the Top Drawer Soccer National Team of the Week. She is the Hoya's all-time leading goalie in shutouts. She is ranked as the 39th goalie in the country. Junior Ingrid Wells, one of the season's star players, was named the BIG EAST Women's Soccer Midfielder of the Year. In addition to her other honors, Wells was selected to practice and play with the US Under-23 National Team. She was also selected to be on the First Team All-American by the NSCAA.

SCORE

Hoyas Have a Great Season

The Hoyas had one of the greatest seasons in the history of the Georgetown men's soccer program. They posted a record of twelve wins, six losses, and two tie games. In the BIG EAST, Georgetown lost only two of eleven games. The Hoyas earned their first NCAA Tournament berth since 1997 and won the Blue Division Championship. In the preseason poll, Georgetown was ranked fourth in the BIG EAST.

Throughout the season, many different Hoyas earned individual honors. Uche Onyeador was named the conference's offensive player of the week, while teammate Matthew Brutto won the BIG EAST goalkeeper of the week. Brutto was also named to the TopDrawerSoccer.com team of the week and earned a spot on the BIG EAST conference honor roll. Brutto had at least three shut outs throughout the season. Sophomore Ian Christianson was also named to the honor roll.

Senior Jose Colchao and freshman Steve Neumann were named as BIG EAST players of the week as well. Neumann was also honored as the BIG EAST rookie of the week.

Georgetown earned the top seed in the Blue Division for the BIG EAST tournament. Unfortunately, the team lost to Providence in the quarterfinals. The team also earned a spot in the NCAA tournament. The Hoyas defeated UNC-Greensboro in the first round of the tournament and moved on to play UNC. Unfortunately, the game was tied and the Hoyas were defeated in penalty kicks.

After the tournament, Christianson was named the BIG EAST midfielder of the year and an All American by College Soccer News. He joined teammate Jimmy Nealis on the National Soccer Coaches' Association of America's All-Region squad. Christianson was also named to College Soccer News' second team and second team All-Northeast Region from the NSCAA. He was named to the BIG EAST first team. He is the program's first All-American since Jeff Curtin received an honorable mention in 2005.

Nealis was a third team All-Northeast Region honoree. Steve Neumann was named to two all-freshman teams and named to the second team by College Soccer News. He was also a second team All-BIG EAST selection.

Every year, all Hoyas gather together on the Copley Beach to discover new clubs, experiences, and friends. You can find every kind of club imaginable at SAC Fair every year on Labor Day Weekend. Joining anything from the Hoya to Club Rugby to the Unconventional Eaters is easy at this shopping market for school activities.

It is always exciting to walk around with friends and discover new opportunities on the hilltop, including internships, publishing, sports, and volunteering. Despite the sheer number of interesting clubs, new ones pop up every year and need new Hoyas.

The university also sponsors food, drinks, and entertainment. Most of the school's a-capella and other performing groups come out to not only entertain students, but also recruit for members. The pep band always gives a show for returning students to get ready for the coming sports season.

And remember - if you can't find it at Sac Fair, you can always start a new club that meets your interests this school year!
GU Pride provides educational and support services to the lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer, and ally (LGBTQA) communities at Georgetown University. We also provide support and referral services to those exploring their sexual orientation and/or gender identity and other individuals sharing an interest in these issues.

Jumpstart partners with six major metropolitan colleges. Through these partnerships, Jumpstart is able to cultivate relationships with more than 380 college students who serve as Corps members, twice a week, in preschool classrooms across Washington D.C. They work with 1,400 Washington D.C. preschool children living in low-income neighborhoods in and around the district. Together, for the entire 2010-2011 school year, they will work on the language, literacy, and social skills these children need to succeed not only in school, but also in life.

The Georgetown University Pep Band is a student musical organization that performs at GU Sporting Events as well as other special functions. We perform at all home football games, women’s basketball games, and men’s basketball games.
Welcome to the website of GUWRFC, Georgetown University Women's Rugby Football Club. The team was founded in 2000 and has come a long way in that time. We started with a handful of girls, certainly not enough to win games or even field a team. We have since joined the PRU, won PRU championships 4 times, and made it to the MARFU tournament 3 years in a row. We are a Division II team and a student-run group and we have two fantastic coaches who we are eternally grateful for.

Alpha Phi Omega is a co-ed student service fraternity dedicated to the principles of fellowship and service. APO members engage in a broad range of service projects in the DC community from providing companionship to Alzheimer patients to overnight staffing of a shelter for women in recovery.

GU Habitat for Humanity draws attention to plight of nation’s homeless and fosters change in the community to better their situation. Habitat programs include homebuilding, and staffing shelters. The group raised enough funds to sponsor Georgetown’s first house in 2004 in Northeast DC.
GPB is dedicated to providing all students with a diverse selection of high quality, affordable, non-alcoholic entertainment.

The Georgetown University Lecture Fund is a student-run organization that exists to enrich the academic experience of the Georgetown community. The Lecture Fund strives to bring speakers to Georgetown’s main campus to enlighten, to educate and, occasionally, to entertain.

Our Mission Statement: The South Asian Society (SAS) seeks to meet the social, cultural, and educational needs of Hoyas with an interest in South Asia. SAS proudly celebrates the cultural, religious, and linguistic diversity of South Asia and aims to raise awareness of South Asian cultures at Georgetown. SAS is committed to building a sense of community among its members and exists to provide a unified voice for South Asian interests on campus. South Asia includes, but is not limited to, the nations of Afghanistan, Bangladesh, Bhutan, India, the Maldives, Nepal, Pakistan, and Sri Lanka.
UNICEF-Georgetown is a student group dedicated to supporting the goals of UNICEF. UNICEF is an international charitable organization dedicated to helping children in need. Since its inception in the wake of World War II, UNICEF has been working hard to immunize children from deadly yet preventable childhood diseases, fight malnutrition, and work with local communities to improve sanitation, educate children, and protect human rights. We ADVOCATE, EDUCATE and FUNDRAISE for Children.

THE PEOPLE OF THE PACIFIC WOULD LIKE TO SHARE THEIR ISLANDS WITH YOU. Being so far away from home gives us an excuse to share our culture through song, dance, and most of all food. Let's just say that we bring Pacific culture to Georgetown. We are open to all Hawaiian and non-Hawaiian students. If you want to be a part of a luau or if you simply want to be around some of the nicest students at Georgetown, then please come join our club.

O Clube Brasileiro will be dedicated to the promotion and appreciation of Brazilian culture in all of its forms within the Georgetown community and Washington D.C. O Clube Brasileiro also seeks to bring together all people of Brazilian descent, or those simply interested in the culture.
The Philodemic Society has been raising thought and sparking dialogue on campus since its establishment in 1830. They host weekly debates on current issues and aid in the promotion of intellectual thought via speech and debate.

The Georgetown International Relations Club (IRC), one of the oldest and largest student organizations at the Georgetown University, was founded in 1923. The IRC aims to offer its members and the University community opportunities for education and reflection on international affairs. The IRC provides outlets for students to engage with international relations scholars and practitioners and participate in simulations of the international system. The IRC sponsors lectures, dialogues, international affairs conferences, and cultural events. The IRC is also home to one of the most successful competitive Model United Nations teams at the collegiate level.

The Georgetown University Legislative Advocates (GULA) is established for the purpose of increasing levels of issue-based student advocacy by providing resources to Georgetown University students and student groups. GULA is a resource for any student who wishes to coordinate with other students to advocate a specific national or local issue. GET ISSUES; LEARN HOW TO LOBBY.
GYSGs is established primarily for the purpose of outdoor culinary education, on-campus event catering, and hosting guest speakers.

Harmony is Georgetown's one and only international a cappella group! Our primary goal is to promote the diversity and beauty of international song. From Bollywood hits to Bulgarian chants, Harmony sings in a wide array of styles from around the world. With a repertoire ranging from Shakira to Jay Chou to Gabonese funeral chants, Harmony's got something for everyone!

Breast Cancer Awareness raises awareness of the risks and prevention of breast cancer, and supports related health programs. Students raise funds through social events and on-campus publicity.

Organized entirely by students, the 200-member Georgetown Ballroom Dance Club includes a competitive Team-Hoya DanceSport—and offers several types and levels of classes for social members as well as team members. Members are invited to local weekly social dance outings and special classes, events, and performances on campus and in the DC area.

The Georgetown yearbook was founded by students in 1908. Since then, it has attracted students that want to commemorate the year. This year’s editor-in-chief was Ashley Angelotti, who has held this position since the summer of 2008.
Students of Georgetown, Inc. ("The Corp"), a non-profit corporation, was founded on March 6, 1972 with the goal of providing options to students with low-cost goods and services. Now in its fourth decade of service, Students of Georgetown, Inc. operates 9 services—Vital Vittles, Uncommon Grounds, More Uncommon Grounds, Corp Catering, Seasonal Services, Hoya Snaxa, The Midnight MUG, and Corp Ink—and maintains Human Resources, IT, Marketing and Accounting departments. Today, The Corp has evolved into a multi-million dollar business and has grown into the largest entirely student-owned and student-operated corporation in the world, with a staff of over 200 students.

GERMS is a student-run, all-volunteer ambulance service, serving Georgetown University and the community since 1982. We provide year round, 24/7 medical services (rapid response, treatment, and transport) to Georgetown and the surrounding community.

Since its inception, Georgetown Club Filipino has sought to promote, develop, and foster a greater awareness of and appreciation for the culture and concerns of Filipino communities here and abroad. We encourage all members of the Georgetown community to check us out!

Why do I RELAY?

Teresa Carriu: I relay for my mom, who lost her fight with breast cancer on January 3, 2005. Her courage and strength continue to inspire me in everything I do. I relay for those we've lost, those who have won and those who are still fighting. I relay because no child should ever have to lose a parent to cancer. I relay so that a cure for cancer will be found in my lifetime.

Every spring, the Senior Class Committee puts together the Graduation Ball, the biggest event of the year, during Senior Week. This year, seniors gathered together at Union Station on the evening before graduation to spend one last night with the friends and colleagues they met during their time on the Hilltop. This year’s theme was the Beatles, and each room’s food and decor was inspired by one of the group’s many songs and albums. Students and families enjoyed face painting, music, food, dancing, and general fun at the ball. There was even a huge photo of the Abbey Road cover that allowed everyone to become their favorite Beatle in a photograph. The night was certainly memorable for all present and a great way to end not only senior week, but this chapter in their lives.

All Our Love,
Mom, Dad, Kaitie and Kelly
Congratulations!!!

You have made us all very proud. It has been an absolute joy to watch a happy, intelligent boy grow into a determined & compassionate young man. Your strong work ethic, common sense, and focused energy provide the leadership skills that will continue to bring you success. Let your humor and moral compass be your guide in everything you do. Best of luck in the next chapter of your journey.

Love Always,
Mom and Dad

Congratulations from Patner Construction to Georgetown University's 2011 graduates.

Go Hoyas
It begins with a dream and a drive to make it happen.

That’s the spirit behind those who set out to make a difference in the world. Believing in yourself, and having others along the way who believe in you, can help make dreams come true. Congratulations to all of Georgetown’s 2011-2012 graduates and best wishes for health and success in living your dreams.

Editor-in-Chief

This is my third year as the editor-in-chief of YeDomesday Book and my fourth year on the staff. I have enjoyed every minute that I spent bringing this and the other books to my fellow Hoyas over the years. I just wanted to thank Erika Cohen-Derr for always pushing me to deliver the best yearbook possible and Allyson Goodwin for handling all of my many requests. The staff at Jostens has been excellent, always knowing exactly what I want even before I do. Finally, I would also like to thank my friends and family for putting up with this for years, even when I was working on it during family vacations! You have all shaped my time on the hilltop and I will never forget any of you. HOYA SAXA Class of 2011!
