

IN THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA COURT OF APPEALS

RUDOLPH SAUNDERS, et al

Appellants,

vs.

FIRST NATIONAL REALTY CORPORATION,

Appellee.

4119, 4120, 4121, 4122

CONSOLIDATED

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA
COURT OF APPEALS

FILED DEC 22 1966

NOTION TO CALNDAR FOR ARGUMENT

COME NOW the appellants herein, by counsel, and move this Honorable Court to schedule this case for oral argument at the earliest practicable time, and as grounds therefor states to the Court as follows:

1. That the final briefs herein were filed in November, 1966.
2. That as of the filing of this Motion, to the best of appellant knowledge and belief, this case has not been scheduled for oral argument.
3. That the time which has elapsed since the filing of the brief herein in November, 1966, and date is well beyond the normal lapse of time within which this case would ordinarily have been scheduled for oral argument, considering its place in time in relation to other civil appeals filed before this Court.
4. That the pleadings below, the rulings on which are alleged as error in this appeal, contain elements which may be rendered moot, if current reports contained in local newspapers are accurate that the premises of the defendant herein involved are shortly to be disposed of, thus irrevocably prejudicing appellants claims herein.
5. That certain issues raised herein concern the right to habitation premises in compliance with laws and regulations in full force and effect in the District of Columbia, the lack of compliance therewith by appellee is or may be found to be a serious violation and/or deprivation of the rights and interests of the appellants herein, for which reason the continued delay or consideration of this matter seriously and irrevocably prejudices appellants herein.

WHEREFORE, the premises considered, appellants respectfully move this Honorable Court to order this matter calendared for argument at the earliest practicable time.

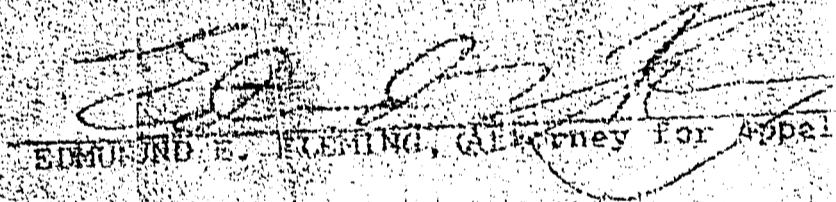

Respectfully submitted,

EDMUND E. FLEMING, Attorney for Appellee
