RE: Luncheon Speaker Invitation for Practical Tips on Patent and Trademark Law
Sponsored by the American Bar Association-Section of Intellectual Property Law
Young Lawyers Committee and The District of Columbia Bar Association
Wednesday, March 31, 2004, Washington, D.C.

Dear Judge Gajarsa:

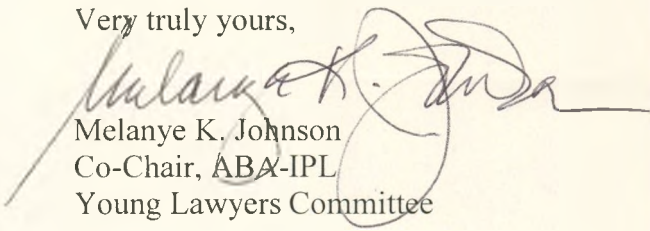

On behalf of the Young Lawyers Committee of the American Bar Association-Section of Intellectual Property Law (ABA-IPL) and the District of Columbia Bar Association, I would like to extend an invitation to you to speak as our luncheon speaker for the 2004 Practical Tips on Patent and Trademark Law program.

For the past four years, as part of our mission to educate and introduce lawyers, irrespective of age or other legal experience, to the practice of intellectual property law, the Young Lawyers Committee (YLC) has presented "Practical Tips" programs across the United States focusing on patent, trademark, and copyright law. Every year we present a daylong Practical Tips program in Washington, D.C. that takes place one day before the beginning of the Section of Intellectual Property Law's Annual Conference in Washington, D.C.

We would be honored to have you as the Practical Tips luncheon speaker this year, particularly since you are a Federal Circuit judge. The luncheon (and the Practical Tips program), which will be held at the International Trade Center at the Ronald Reagan Building, lasts from 12:15 P.M. to 1:45 P.M. Our luncheon speakers typically talk for thirty minutes on any topic that is relevant to intellectual property law practice today.

We thank you for your time and consideration, and again, we would be honored to have your presence at our program on March 31, 2004. Please let me know, no later than Friday, January 23, 2004, whether you will be able to accept our invitation. If you would like to know more about past Practical Tips programs, brochures can be accessed on-line at the ABA-IPL web site located at www.abanet.org/intelprop.

Very truly yours,

Melanye K. Johnson
Co-Chair, ABA-IPL
Young Lawyers Committee

E. I. du Pont de Nemours and Company is not a sponsor of the Practical Tips program.
