Gifts to Library Campaign Top $13 Million

Campaign commitments from alumni, parents, and friends over the last twelve months mean fresh support for a range of library needs. “More and more people are realizing that supporting the library, the intellectual heart of Georgetown, is synonymous with supporting all the undergraduate and graduate programs of the university,” says David J. Walsh (C’58), 1997-99 chairman of the library’s Campaign Steering Committee. “Over the past year, we’ve seen a growing enthusiasm to help the library meet the needs of students and faculty in the areas of information technology, collection development, and preservation.”

Thanks to the generosity of so many, this year the library has served Georgetown’s learning community like never before, with contributions of just over $3 million from June 1998 through June 1999 bringing our campaign total to over $13 million towards our $30 million goal. Highlighted below, grouped by campaign priority needs, are those people who this year made pledges ranging from $15,000 to $500,000, or who gave a one-time campaign gift of $50,000 or more, to the library’s Third Century Campaign.

Expanding Information Technology:

The Dubin and Brown Families: The Wilbert B. Dubin Memorial Classroom for instruction in library technology
  - Charles S. Brown, Jr., G’91
  - Louisa J. Brown
  - Dreux N. Claiden, B’81
  - Cynthia S. Dubin, B’84
  - Drake L. Dubin, B’84
  - Louisa C. Dubin

Susan K. Martin, Ph.D.: Information Technology Fund

Developing Library Collections:

General collections supporting existing and emerging academic programs:
  - Bruce M. and Elaine C. Buck: Graham Justin Buck Writing Fund (parents of Graham J. Buck, C’99)
  - John H. Forsgren, C’67: John H. Forsgren Collection for the Arts in support of art, music, and theatre

The Petzold Family: Thomas T. Petzold Endowed Fund for Catholic Studies
  - William, C’62, and Jane Petzold
  - Ruth H. Petzold
  - Mrs. Thomas T. Petzold
  - Patricia R. Turnbull
  - Anna P. Nichols

(continues on page 2)
Gifts to the Library Top $13 Million (continued from page 1)

Special collections to expand scholarship in primary resource materials:

Elizabeth Bancroft: Major gift in addition to the Russell J. Bowen Collection in Intelligence, Spying, and Covert Activities

  Robert M. Callagy, C'60
  Lynn R. Callagy

Patricia Collins Sarnoff: The Joe Raposo Music Collection
  (parents of Elizabeth Raposo, C'98)

The Healey Family Foundation: Thomas Healey Fund for Booker Prize Collections
  Thomas J. Healey, C'64
  Margaret S. Healey
  T. Jeremiah Healey, C'95
  Megan H. Hagerty

Frederick B. Scheetz, C'67: Breier-Scheetz Manuscript Endowment Fund

Nicholas B. Scheetz, C'74: Breier-Scheetz Manuscript Endowment Fund

Anonymous: Gift to the Stephen Richard Kerbs (C'67) Memorial Collections Exhibit Area

Preserving the Book Collection:

Joseph J. Sussen, Jr., C'49: The Mary B. and Joseph J. Sussen, Jr. (C'49) Library Endowment Fund for Preservation

Meeting the Library's General Needs:

The Cawley Family Foundation: Chimes Book Endowment Fund in memory of Alfred J. Walsh, C'52
  Charles M. Cawley, C'62

The Robert M. Flanagan Family Foundation: Flanagan Family Chimes Fund in memory of Joseph M. Lauinger (C'67)
  Robert M. Flanagan, B'67
  Maurie M. Flanagan, N'68
  Sean F. Flanagan, B'95
  Joseph M. Flanagan, B'93
  Mara H. Flanagan, C'99

Mary Jo Frere: Library Associates Program

Richard P. McMahon, C'49: University Librarian's Discretionary Fund

The Hillsdale Fund, Inc.: Library Associates Program
  Eudora L. Richardson, C'85

Peter J. Tanous, C'60: Peter J. Tanous Book Fund for General Library Acquisitions

If you would like more information about the library's Third Century Campaign or information on specific giving opportunities, please contact Marji Bayers at (202) 687-5666; e-mail: bayersm@gunet.georgetown.edu.

Georgetown University Library Campaign Steering Committee:

Anne-Marie Barcia de Leiva (F'76), London, UK
Roseanne McIlvane Casey (G'79), Washington, DC
Holland H. Goss (F'91), New York, NY
E. Anthony Kerbs (C'73), Rumson, NJ
Philip C. Lauinger, Jr. (C'58), Tulsa, OK
William A. Petzold, III (C'62), Grosse Pointe, MI
Nancy Picchi (C'71), Hoboken, NJ
Peter J. Tanous (C'60), Washington, DC
David J. Walsh (C'58), New York, NY, Chairman, 1997-99
John H. Forsgren (C'67), Lyme, CT, Chairman, 1999-
CAMPAIGN GOALS

GU President Leo J. O'Donovan, S.J. and Sue Martin at the Library's Campaign Kick-off Dinner

Georgetown University Library .............................................. $30 million
Expanding Information Technology ........................................... $8 million
  • New Media Center for Collaborative Learning and Research 1 million
  • Digital Collection ................................................................. 4.75 million
  • CD-ROM Juke Box ................................................................. 250,000
  • Infrastructure Upgrades ........................................................ 2 million
Developing Library Collections ............................................... $7 million
  • Special Subject Areas ............................................................. 5 million
  • Emerging Disciplines ............................................................. 2 million
Preserving the Book Collection .............................................. $6.5 million
  • De-acidification of Book Paper ................................................ 5 million
  • Reformatting Books ............................................................... 1.5 million
Endowing Library Leadership ............................................... $7 million
  • University Librarian ............................................................... 3 million
  • Keeper of Special Collections ................................................ 2 million
  • University Archivist ............................................................... 2 million
Annual Fund ................................................................................ $1.5 million

GIFTS SOUGHT BY THE CAMPAIGN FOR THE LIBRARY

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Number of Gifts Needed</th>
<th>Average Size</th>
<th>TOTAL</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1</td>
<td>$5 million</td>
<td>$5 million</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2</td>
<td>$3 million</td>
<td>$6 million</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3</td>
<td>$2 million</td>
<td>$6 million</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4</td>
<td>$1 million</td>
<td>$4 million</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5</td>
<td>$500,000</td>
<td>$2.5 million</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>8</td>
<td>$250,000</td>
<td>$2 million</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>15</td>
<td>$100,000</td>
<td>$1.5 million</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>30</td>
<td>$50,000</td>
<td>$1.5 million</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Many</td>
<td>under $50,000</td>
<td>$1.5 million</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

GRAND TOTAL: $30 million

A NEW OLD MANUSCRIPT

We rejoice in adding to our collections an unrecorded manuscript of the first three books of the De imitatio Christi, attributed to Thomas à Kempis. Probably written in Flanders between 1445 and 1475, the manuscript survives in a nearly contemporary binding and is enhanced by an even earlier bifolium in Dutch, perhaps used as a bookmark.

The manuscript comes to us as a gift of the estate of Louise A. Emling, presented by her daughters, Mrs. Judith Molseed and Mrs. Sarah Byrne.
IN MEMORIAM

We note with great regret the death of longtime Library Advisory Council member and longtime friend of the library Maurice Adelman, Jr. (L'58). When he retired from Brooklyn to the more temperate delights of Savannah in 1994 Maury generously gave us his library, rich in early English Catholic history and literary first editions, particularly of Willa Cather and Msgr. Ronald Knox.

In recent years he had greatly increased the size of the endowment fund he established many years ago in the name of Blessed Margaret Pole, income from which goes to fund the continued collecting of early English Catholic materials, and a bequest from his estate will further enhance the endowment.

The library is very greatly in Maury's debt, and we shall miss him.

LIBRARY INCORPORATES UNIVERSITY COLLECTION

During the 1999-2000 academic year Lauinger Library's Special Collections Division will take charge of the previously independent University Collection of fine art, antiques, and various other items of historical significance. Part of the University Collection is displayed on a regular basis in the Carroll Parlor of the Healy Building, and items from it are on loan to various university offices on all three campuses, but the bulk of the collection, which totals more than 1,500 items, is stored in the old University Archives suite in the basement of the Healy Building. The library already manages virtually all of the university's collections of fine prints and other graphic arts, collections which extend at present to more than 16,000 items and portions of which are regularly exhibited in the library's Fairchild Memorial Gallery.

The best-known items in the University Collection are undoubtedly the Gilbert Stuart portrait of Archbishop John Carroll, which hangs in the president's office, and the seated statue of Carroll which stands in front of the Healy Building. In the Carroll Parlor are paintings of the university in the 1820s and 30s done by its first art instructor, James Simpson, as well as a number of significant oils by earlier European masters. And, though they are rarely displayed, the collection includes a number of fine examples of English and American church silver from the colonial period as well as a fine collection of prize medals in gold and silver awarded by the university throughout the 19th century, several examples of which are currently displayed in Carroll Parlor.

One of the library's goals is to increase the visibility (and ultimately the scholarly utility) of the collection as well as to facilitate its growth along carefully defined lines. Among the first activities to be undertaken in pursuit of this goal will be to stage an open house in Carroll Parlor for Library Associates and friends towards the end of the millennial year.
Graham Greene's Last Love

Not many of our acquisitions get reviewed in the press, but three London papers were prompt in picking up the story of our purchase of Graham Greene's letters to Mme. Yvonne Cloetta. Brief news items made the Daily Telegraph and the Evening Standard at the beginning of June, and a lengthy article written by Greene's authorized biographer, Norman Sherry, was featured in the Sunday Times on June 13.

Greene was introduced to Mme. Cloetta by friends in the French Cameroons in the late 1950s, but it was only after they met again somewhat later, in Antibes, where they began the affair that would last more than thirty years until the novelist's death, the longest active relationship Greene had with any of the many women in his life.

In all, more than 100 letters written between the early 1960s and the mid-80s, in what Sherry aptly calls Greene's "not much better than chicken-scratching calligraphy," open up for us a relationship that had the characteristics of maturity and serenity that were so noticeably absent from Greene's marriage and his often stormy affair with Catherine Walston. Greene writes to Yvonne about the people and places he visits, and even of his fears of visiting some of them, like Haiti, but the narrative is interspersed with the sort of day-to-day affairs that those of us who aren't great novelists can easily understand: buying duty-free cigarettes, tending to the needs of a dog, a garden, and shopping, and of course the inevitable running commentary on the food and drink available and the acquaintances with whom they are shared. Dealing with such a wide variety of issues as they do, going beyond Greene's work as a writer, the letters convey to us a sense of the completeness with which he approached life in general. Reading the letters, we are convinced of his enduring love for Yvonne.

The letters were purchased with funds generously provided by Library Advisory Council member Robert M. Callagy (C'60) and his wife, Lynn.
FLANAGAN GIFT: A HOYA FAMILY AFFAIR

The Georgetown and Jesuit tenets of “educating the mind, body, and spirit,” of “being a person for others,” and of the “importance of the family” are ideals instilled for generations in the members of the Robert M. and Maurie Flanagan family. Members of the Flanagan clan have come to Georgetown not only to learn, but also to take part in educational opportunities beyond the classroom. Recently the Flanagan family reflected those ideals by making a $1 million gift to Georgetown that will have lasting effects on the university.

The Flanagans’ connection to Georgetown University began in the 1920s, when Dr. John J. Flanagan (C’28, M’30, R’31) arrived at the Hilltop. Dr. Flanagan attended Georgetown on a football scholarship and played for legendary Coach Lou Little. After graduation, Dr. Flanagan went on to the Georgetown Medical School, did his residency at Georgetown Hospital, and married Helen Froehlich from Trinity College, class of 1927. The Flanagan legacy continued with the admittance and graduation of Dr. Flanagan’s sons, Robert (B’67) and David (M’66), and four grandchildren: Joe (B’93), Sean (B’95), Mara (C’99), and David (MBA ’99).

Bob Flanagan gained more than just a degree at the Hilltop. He participated in the Chimes and intramurals; after graduation, he stayed involved with the university by serving as a member of the Board of Regents, the Board of Visitors of the Business School, the Parents Fund Council, the Wall Street Alliance, and most recently the Library Advisory Council. In addition, he met three very special people at Georgetown who have been dear to him ever since. He was introduced to his future wife, Maurie McIntire (N’68), a three-sport athlete in tennis, women’s basketball, and swimming. He also met there two of his closest friends. One was fellow-Chime and classmate Joseph Lauinger (C’67); theirs was a friendship that seemed destined to remain, but the Vietnam War stood in the way, and Joe Lauinger died January 8, 1970 in the service of his country. Also, over the 30 years of his association with Georgetown, Bob Flanagan became close friends with Frank Rienzo, Athletic Director Emeritus. Bob served on the Athletics Committee of the Board of Regents, and the two have remained close over the years. Bob admired Frank’s 30-year commitment to academic and athletic excellence among all the student-athletes at Georgetown.

Bob and Maurie and their three children decided that the people who were most special to them at Georgetown deserved to be honored in a significant way. At the same time, they decided that the legacy of giving back to the University by the family was important. As part of the University’s Third Century Campaign, the family decided to establish the Flanagan Family Foundation with a $1 million gift. The Foundation trustees, Joe, Sean, and Mara, will decide over the next 20 years among a variety of charities to receive gifts from the annual income of the foundation. At the end of the 20 years, the Foundation will be terminated; the principal of $1 million will be given to Georgetown in two ways in honor of special people. In honor of Joe Lauinger and in loving memory of Bob’s mother Helen, a former teacher and educator, $500,000 will be given to Lauinger Library for the Chimes Book Fund Endowment, which supports the acquisition of and access to information resources in the main campus libraries. The remaining $500,000 will establish the Flanagan Family Endowed Athletic Scholarship in appreciation of the work of Frank Rienzo and in loving memory of Bob’s father.

We are grateful to all the Flanagans!
Honor With Books

Below are the names of parents and friends who participated in honoring a member of the Class of 1999 through the Honor With Books program.

Honor With Books allows the Library to purchase one or more books for its collections. A bookplate is placed in each book bearing the names of the donor(s) and honoree. To learn more about this program, please contact Ms. Marianne Green at (202) 687-7446.

DONOR(S):

Mr. Addy Al-Shaikh ...................................................... Addy Al-Shaikh, L'99
Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth L. Applehans ..................................... Denver Applehans, C'99
Ms. Kathleen Baczko ...................................................... David F. Baczko, C'99
Ms. Claudia Beghe-Balducci ............................................. Marco R. Balducci, F'99
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bischoff ............................................ Renee V. Bischoff, F'99
Mr. and Mrs. William L. Bolster ....................................... Barry J. Bolster, C'99
Dr. and Mrs. James Bulen ................................................. James A. Bulen, Jr., C'99
Mr. C. Patrick Carroll ..................................................... Patrick J. Carroll, C'99
Mr. and Mrs. Jacques Casimir ........................................... Dominique Liza Casimir, C'99
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Christy .............................................. Jonathan M. Christy, C'99
Mr. and Mrs. Edward Chuang .......................................... Monica Chuang, I'99
Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth E. Cohen ....................................... Rachel G. Cohen, C'99
Mr. and Mrs. Rodney W. Comeau ..................................... Scott L. Comeau, C'99
Mr. and Mrs. Pierce S. Corden ........................................ Mark Hendrik Corden, C'99
Mrs. Franceta W. Davis-Bowe .......................................... Angela Franceta Ramson, B'99
Mr. and Mrs. Allan Lynn Dreifuss .................................... Mark Ian Dreifuss, F'99
Dr. and Mrs. Charles L. Dupin ........................................ Michael C. Dupin, C'99
Mr. and Mrs. William T. Earle ......................................... Emily M. Earle, C'99
Mr. and Mrs. David Ehrenwerth ....................................... Lissa Brett Young, F'99
Drs. Gabriela and Ariosto Evia ......................................... Gabriela Evia, F'99
Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Fiore ............................................ Darren Fiore, C'99
Mr. and Mrs. Bruce P. Flynn .......................................... Jason Michael Flynn, B'99
Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Fraise .............................................. Evrard Fraise, C'99
Mr. and Mrs. Ira Goodman ............................................. Gia Goodman, N'99
Mrs. Franceta W. Davis-Bowe .......................................... Angela Franceta Ramson, B'99
Mr. and Mrs. Allan Lynn Dreifuss .................................... Mark Ian Dreifuss, F'99
Dr. and Mrs. Charles L. Dupin ........................................ Michael C. Dupin, C'99
Mr. and Mrs. William T. Earle ......................................... Emily M. Earle, C'99
Mr. and Mrs. David Ehrenwerth ....................................... Lissa Brett Young, F'99
Drs. Gabriela and Ariosto Evia ......................................... Gabriela Evia, F'99
Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Fiore ............................................ Darren Fiore, C'99
Mr. and Mrs. Bruce P. Flynn .......................................... Jason Michael Flynn, B'99
Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Fraise .............................................. Evrard Fraise, C'99
Mr. and Mrs. Ira Goodman ............................................. Gia Goodman, N'99

HONOREE:

(continues on page 8)
JOIN THE ASSOCIATES

Readers of this newsletter who are NOT already members of the LIBRARY ASSOCIATES can receive information on how to join by contacting Ms. Marianne Green. Write her at the library address, or call her at (202) 687-7446, or fax her at (202) 687-7501. Programs are always STIMULATING, and the benefits are GREAT!

Honor with Books (continued from page 7)

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Krapf .................................................. Benjamin M. Krapf, C'99
Mr. Donald L. Laurie ............................................................ Chantal Laurie, C'99
Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Linck ............................................... Kathleen M. Linck, N'99
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph D. Lonardo ......................................... Scott Lonardo, C'99
Ms. Regina Lupo ................................................................. Mary E. Lupo, B'99
Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Machir .......................................... Patrick J. Machir, B'99
Dr. and Mrs. Gary D. Marano ............................................... Andrea Marano, C'99
Mr. John B. McDonald ....................................................... Jennifer McDonald, C'99
Mr. Kevin McGilloway ....................................................... Kate McGilloway, C'99
Mr. and Mrs. John J. Meehan ................................................ Seth Meehan, C'99
Ms. Samira Meghdessian ................................................... Mira-Yasmine Meghdessian, I'99
Mr. and Mrs. James Morrell ................................................ Michael P. Morrell, B'99
Mr. and Mrs. Michael A. Mullan ........................................... Sean A. Mullan, C'99
Ms. Marie O'Connor ............................................................ Shawn O'Connor, F'99
Dr. and Mrs. Martin Olsen .................................................... Kirsten Elizabeth Olsen, F'99
Ms. Elizabeth Posner ........................................................... Kearney Posner, F'99
Mr. and Mrs. Patrick J. Regan ............................................... Michael J. Regan, B'99
Mr. and Mrs. John Ruggini ................................................... John A. Ruggini, F'99
Mr. Rex S. Ruthman ............................................................. Alexander Ruthman, F'99
Mr. Ashraf M. Sahaf ............................................................ Monica Sahaf, C'99
The Selden Family ............................................................... Michael Selden, C'99
Mr. and Mrs. William H. Shannon ....................................... Shannon E. Harris, C'99
Mr. and Mrs. John Sindoni .................................................... Valerie Sindoni, C'99
Col. and Mrs. Gale N. Smith ................................................ Brian N. Smith, C'99
Mr. and Mrs. J. Peter Spader ................................................ John P. Spader III, C'99
Mr. and Mrs. Victor Sperber ................................................ Melyssa Sperber, F'99
Mr. and Mrs. Thomas T. Staff .............................................. Michael Staff, C'99
Ms. Eileen Valor ................................................................. Laura Carlucci, C'99
Mr. and Mrs. David G. Wright ............................................ Hillary G. Wright, C'99
Dr. and Mrs. Naum Zdravkovska .......................................... Damjan Panovski, C'99

Georgetown University

Library Associates Newsletter

3700 O Street, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20057-1006