(only 17 more days to use this "6".)

Dear Sonny,

I hope the nite gown etc I sent Pop is remailed in time to reach Charlotte. If not, give it to one of your other babies. It ain't cheap stuff either.

Enclosed find clipping from Chicago Tribune. You might save this for my scrap book, eh?

Weather here grows colder. It is much like D.C., perhaps not as cold. I am still playing tennis now & then as we have had no snow. But a train passed my window the other day white with snow piled up at some northern part of the Islands. So it won't be long now.
