Dear Billy,

I received every now and then a bundle of Dredwood papers, addressed in your handwriting, but I have waited in vain for some other specimen of chirography from the same source.

Mr. McLaughlin is renewing the journal this year and is slow concluding an essay on "A Promised Return to Courage." It was a composition that pleased Mr. Clark so much, probably because I responded the affirmative side of the question, that he took it and it circulated in the journal. "
I hope that it will likewise find an echo in Mae’s fruit.

Our boys had a game with the Nationals last week broken by a score of 13 to 1. The Nationals beat the Louisvilles by a similar score yesterday.

I am a member of the Philomnie Society and Secretary of the Dramatic Society.

To Connelly, whom you probably remember, as he was here a few days teaching poetry when Fr. Whifford was here, is our president.

Almost all of the philosophy class is back, except McIntosh. Smith Brennan paid us a visit this week.

Dr. Tannor is engaged in business in Washington.
quite often. My Calgum
is studying law at the law school.

Jiminey, Maker failed to return last year, but we get a new pitcher, number Taylor, who is no "slouch!"
Clarence Jones is first base
and John Jones second.
Guller is back and we are the back of friends.

To Carroll has not returned to Washington yet. Very not unusual. I believe. Pete Smith has a position in one of the departments we attended the law school.

Mr. McGunn was fired from the orders were went into training to stand up before J. L. Sullivan. He got hold of some coal
Leave as gave an exhibition at Albany. We got the whole side of his face knocked off. He is now working for his brother in-laws on the Albany Argus. They say he is married.

I saw Kramen and Jim McWhone, wish to be remembered to you.

God me regards to all my friends.

Love to father and mother and write soon.

Yours affectionately,
