NEW TITLES IN BIOETHICS

Volume 32, Number 1
January - March 2006
A NOTE TO OUR READERS . . .

Because funds are limited, we are very grateful for your donations, as well as your recommendations to your publishers to forward review copies to the Editor. In addition to being listed here, all titles accepted for the collection will be considered for inclusion in the NLM Catalog database, augmented at the Kennedy Institute of Ethics by contract with the National Library of Medicine. Your efforts to support this publication and the dissemination of bioethics information in general are sincerely appreciated.

NEW TITLES IN BIOETHICS is published four times per year (quarterly) by the National Reference Center for Bioethics Literature, Kennedy Institute of Ethics as an electronic version (http://bioethics.georgetown.edu) beginning with 2004. Annual Cumulations were published up until 2005 as a separate print publication. In addition, NEW TITLES IN BIOETHICS data is included annually in the BIBLIOGRAPHY OF BIOETHICS. NEW TITLES IN BIOETHICS is a listing by subject of recent additions to the National Reference Center’s collection. (The subject classification scheme is reproduced in full at the end of each quarterly issue.) With the exception of documents in the section “New Publications from the Kennedy Institute of Ethics,” materials listed herein are not available from the National Reference Center. They are often available directly from the publishers listed in each citation.

Note: Beginning in January 2006, NEW TITLES IN BIOETHICS quarterly issues will only be available online at: http://bioethics.georgetown.edu. Annual cumulations will no longer be available as a separate publication, but will be included in each annual volume of the BIBLIOGRAPHY OF BIOETHICS, published each September.

The acquisitions cited in this publication have been acquired with the support of the National Library of Medicine, National Institutes of Health, Department of Health and Human Services, Contract No. HHSN276200553501 [and] Grant No. P41 HG01115 from the National Human Genome Research Institute, National Institutes of Health. Other items cited are provided by the National Endowment for the Humanities, the Anderson Partnership, the Kampelman Collection of Jewish Ethics, and the publishers and individual donors noted.

Haddix, Margaret Peterson. DOUBLE IDENTITY. New York: Simon & Schuster Books for Young Readers, 2005. 218 p. ISBN 0-689-87374-3. (Juvenile literature. “As Bethany approaches her thirteenth birthday, her parents begin acting more oddly than usual: Her mother cries constantly, and her father barely lets Bethany out of his sight. Then one morning he hustles the entire family into the car, drives across several state lines—and leaves Bethany with an aunt she never knew existed. Bethany has no idea what’s going on. She’s worried that her mom and dad are running from some kind of trouble, but she can’t find out because they won’t tell her where they are going. Bethany’s only clue is a few words she overheard her father tell her aunt Myrlie: "She doesn’t know anything about Elizabeth." But Aunt Myrlie won’t tell Bethany who Elizabeth is, and she won’t explain why people in her small town react to Bethany as if they’ve seen a ghost. The mystery intensifies when Bethany gets a package from her father containing four different birth certificates from four states, with four different last names—and thousands of dollars in cash. And when a stranger man shows up asking questions, Bethany realizes she’s not the only one who’s desperate to unravel the secrets of her past.”) (14.5; Fiction)

20.1 Death and Dying (General)

Ullmann, Linn. Grace. New York: Alfred A. Knopf, 2005. 130 p. ISBN 1-4000-4285-2. (Translation from the Norwegian by Barbara Haveland of: Node; Forlaget Oktober AS, Oslo, 2002. “When Johan was a boy, he bargained with Death, and in good time Death obligingly took his father. And when Johan was miserably married, Death kindly took his equine first wife, leaving him a tidy sum. But now, with the Reaper coming for him, Johan cries out for certainties, for control, for dignity. He enlists his adoring second wife, the grace of his otherwise mean existence, to be, "when he couldn’t fight any longer," his reluctant angel of death. But as he drifts away into melancholic, hallucinatory recollection, the bonds of their mutual devotion gradually dissolve and the living and the dying begin their inevitable divergence. And as Johan, his wife beside him, slips under the solitary shadow he fears most, we are made to witness the muted tragedy of the Scandinavian way—now more and more our own way—of dying.”) [PT8951.31 .L56 T513 2005] (20.1; 20.3.1; Fiction)

NEW TITLES IN BIOETHICS

Volume 32, Number 2
April - June 2006
A NOTE TO OUR READERS . . .

Because funds are limited, we are very grateful for your donations, as well as your recommendations to your publishers to forward review copies to the Editor. In addition to being listed here, all titles accepted for the collection will be considered for inclusion in the NLM Catalog database, augmented at the Kennedy Institute of Ethics by contract with the National Library of Medicine. Your efforts to support this publication and the dissemination of bioethics information in general are sincerely appreciated.

NEW TITLES IN BIOETHICS is published four times per year (quarterly) by the National Reference Center for Bioethics Literature, Kennedy Institute of Ethics as an electronic version (http://bioethics.georgetown.edu) beginning with 2004. Annual Cumulations were published up until 2005 as a separate print publication. In addition, NEW TITLES IN BIOETHICS data is included annually in the BIBLIOGRAPHY OF BIOETHICS. NEW TITLES IN BIOETHICS is a listing by subject of recent additions to the National Reference Center’s collection. (The subject classification scheme is reproduced in full at the end of each quarterly issue.) With the exception of documents in the section “New Publications from the Kennedy Institute of Ethics,” materials listed herein are not available from the National Reference Center. They are often available directly from the publishers listed in each citation.

Salzman, Mark. LYING AWAKE. New York: Vintage Books, 2000. 181 p. ISBN 0-375-70606-2. (“In a Carmelite monastery outside present-day Los Angeles, life goes on in a manner virtually unchanged for centuries. Sister John of the Cross has spent years in the service of God, but lately her life has been electrified by her ever more frequent visions of God’s radiance. Sister John’s waking dreams have led her toward the deepest religious ecstasy she has ever known, and have allowed her life and writings to become an example of the rewards of devotion for her fellow supplicants. But her visions are accompanied by shattering headaches, and when a doctor reveals that they may be dangerous, she faces a devastating choice. For if her spiritual gifts are symptoms of illness rather than grace, will a ‘cure’ mean the end of her visions and a soul once again at odds with the world?”) (9.5.1; 1.2; Fiction)

(“From the Booker Prize-winning author of The Remains of the Day and When We Were Orphans, comes an unforgettable edge-of-your-seat mystery that is at once heartbreakingly tender and morally courageous about what it means to be human. Hailsham seems like a pleasant English boarding school, far from the influences of the city. Its students are well tended and supported, trained in art and literature, and become just the sort of people the world wants them to be. But, curiously, they are taught nothing of the outside world and are allowed little contact with it. Within the grounds of Hailsham, Kathy grows from schoolgirl to young woman, but it’s only when she and her friends Ruth and Tommy leave the safe grounds of the school (as they always knew they would) that they realize the full truth of what Hailsham is.”) [PR6059 .S5 N48 2005] (14.5; 19.5; Fiction)

A NOTE TO OUR READERS . . .

Because funds are limited, we are very grateful for your donations, as well as your recommendations to your publishers to forward review copies to the Editor. In addition to being listed here, all titles accepted for the collection will be considered for inclusion in the NLM Catalog database, augmented at the Kennedy Institute of Ethics by contract with the National Library of Medicine. Your efforts to support this publication and the dissemination of bioethics information in general are sincerely appreciated.

NEW TITLES IN BIOETHICS is published four times per year (quarterly) by the National Reference Center for Bioethics Literature, Kennedy Institute of Ethics as an electronic version (http://bioethics.georgetown.edu) beginning with 2004. Annual Cumulations were published up until 2005 as a separate print publication. In addition, NEW TITLES IN BIOETHICS data is included annually in the BIBLIOGRAPHY OF BIOETHICS. NEW TITLES IN BIOETHICS is a listing by subject of recent additions to the National Reference Center’s collection. (The subject classification scheme is reproduced in full at the end of each quarterly issue.) With the exception of documents in the section “New Publications from the Kennedy Institute of Ethics,” materials listed herein are not available from the National Reference Center. They are often available directly from the publishers listed in each citation.

Note: Beginning in January 2006, NEW TITLES IN BIOETHICS quarterly issues will only be available online at: http://bioethics.georgetown.edu. Annual cumulations will no longer be available as a separate publication, but will be included in each annual volume of the BIBLIOGRAPHY OF BIOETHICS, published each September.

NEW TITLES IN BIOETHICS

Volume 32, Number 4
October - December 2006
Because funds are limited, we are very grateful for your donations, as well as your recommendations to your publishers to forward review copies to the Editor. In addition to being listed here, all titles accepted for the collection will be considered for inclusion in the NLM Catalog database, augmented at the Kennedy Institute of Ethics by contract with the National Library of Medicine. Your efforts to support this publication and the dissemination of bioethics information in general are sincerely appreciated.

NEW TITLES IN BIOETHICS is published four times per year (quarterly) by the National Reference Center for Bioethics Literature, Kennedy Institute of Ethics as an electronic version (http://bioethics.georgetown.edu) beginning with 2004. Annual Cumulations were published up until 2005 as a separate print publication. In addition, NEW TITLES IN BIOETHICS data is included annually in the BIBLIOGRAPHY OF BIOETHICS. NEW TITLES IN BIOETHICS is a listing by subject of recent additions to the National Reference Center's collection. (The subject classification scheme is reproduced in full at the end of each quarterly issue.) With the exception of documents in the section “New Publications from the Kennedy Institute of Ethics,” materials listed herein are not available from the National Reference Center. They are often available directly from the publishers listed in each citation.
