

Discussion

You've now listened to several different views about the moral status of early human life, each described within the framework that its advocates use.

Choose one view, different from your own, that you feel you now better understand, and describe what you found most surprising or intriguing about it.

Reddit

EDIT

Want to discuss with other auditors? Bring the conversation on over to reddit.

(Don't bother with the discussion link below—the forum is frozen until the next live iteration of this course!)