Dear Students and Families:

It is my pleasure to introduce the 2001 Georgetown University Law Center Yearbook prepared by the Student Bar Association with the assistance of the Office of Student Affairs. This yearbook serves to remind us all of some of the special moments shared by this community. I hope that you enjoy these pictures of your “home away from home” for the last several years.

I hope that you will also remember that you will always be a part of our community. We look forward to hearing about your successes and to seeing you at Reunions and other alumni events. Please stay in touch.

Congratulations and best wishes,

Rachel (R.K.M.),

This congratulatory message is an expression of our joy and rejoicing for you.

Your life, full of exemplary spirit, personality, character, attitude, focus, and accomplishments, has brought to our lives unmatched pride and love for you, the most precious person in our lives.

All our love as you continue your life’s pursuits.

Dad and Mom
On behalf of Dad, Jim, Karen, John, Kenny, Anne, Jake, Luke, and Madison, congratulations! You worked so hard to earn it, and we are all proud of you! We only wish mom could be here to share in this momentous occasion with you. We wish you the best in all of your future endeavors.

Dear Matthew:

(or perhaps it should be: Dr. J. Matthew Owens)

We love you and are so very proud of you! This pride has grown day by day for twenty-four years (soon twenty-five). God has blessed you with many gifts and talents, which you have used to fully achieve and often exceed your goals. More importantly, you have always found a way to share these gifts and talents with family and friends.

We thank you for all the joy you have given to us over the years. You are truly one of God’s blessings to us all, and we know you will be an asset to Arnold and Porter. Your honesty, integrity and endless pursuit of knowledge will help make you a wonderful lawyer, as it has made you a wonderful son and brother.

Much has been said about the legal profession, some good, some bad. But it is a profession which will only benefit once you are admitted to the fraternity.

As Henry David Thoreau would say, we ask only that you “go confidently in the direction of your dreams. Live the life you’ve imagined.”

And may the saddest day of your future be no worse than the happiest day of your past!!!

With all our love,

Your parents, your brother, and a wonderfully proud family
Sekret Tamara Sneed, J.D.

Congratulations

Tammy we are proud of your accomplishments. You excelled from high school to Stanford University to Georgetown University Law. You have become a noted and popular author of two romance novels, A Royal Vow and Love Undercover. We wish you a successful and a prosperous law career.

You are a phenomenal woman, PHENOMENALLY!

To Eugene Michael Kofman,

It’s always meant so very much to have a son like you – a son to love, enjoy, respect, and feel so proud of, too.... That’s why these special wishes for the things your are dreaming of are filled with joy, with warmth and pride, but most of all – with love! With warm congratulations for beginning something new. May you reach the goals you hope for and succeed in all you do.

All our love,

To Our Daughter Tiffany J. Riggs

Congratulations and Best Wishes as you graduate from Law School.

Words cannot express the pride and joy you have added to our lives. You are as "Special" now as the day you were born. We feel extremely privileged that you were born to us.

It has been a wonderful and rewarding experience to be a part of your life and watch you grow into a strong, independent woman and all around good person. We know that we have been Blessed.

We Salute you and Wish you the Best now and always.

Thank you dear God for placing Tammy in our family and for the great task she has accomplished!

We thank God for all the good days we have shared with you Tammy; the birthdays, holidays, picnics, house parties, barbecues, basketball games, softball games, and track meets. We especially enjoyed when you, your sister and cousins had sleepovers at grandma and grandpa’s house which included all night television, popcorn, and in general, keeping me and your grandmother awake. For these memories, we are thankful!

You have made us very happy. We love you because you are part of our family, planned for by God. All we can say at this time Tammy is “To God Be the Glory!”

Dear Josh,

As you go out into the world, choose your destination well and do not hurry there. You will arrive soon enough. Wander the backroads and forgotten paths stopping along the way to savor the people and moments you encounter along the road. Seek out new voices and ideas foreign to your own...such are riches for the soul.

And if, upon you arrival, you find that your destination is not exactly as you'd hoped, do not be discouraged. Think of all you would have missed but for the journey there. Remember the true worth of your travel lies not in where you come to be at the journey's end but in who you come to be along the way!

We love you and are very proud of you!

Your Family

Dear Kenichiro,

Congratulations on your graduation from Georgetown University Law Center!!

I am much delighted that you have accomplished the prominent LL.M. program at GULC. You made every effort. I am sure that your father is also delighted with your graduation. I am so glad that you were blessed with great professors, good friends and kind people during the year at GULC and that you had a lot of fruitful, precious experiences. I am so grateful to the professors who instructed you and also to those who helped you or were kind to you. I want you to keep in mind your gratitude to them. I believe that you will make the best use of your studies and experiences from GULC and will be able to contribute to society in the future.

You did not only have happy experiences but also various difficulties but you were able to get over the difficulties. I am certain that you will also be able to do well in the years to come and realize your successful career. I am thankful and praying to God for protecting and leading you. You are going to study law further. I hope that you will do your best.

I always wish you good health, happiness and a full and fruitful life
Once again, congratulations on your graduation!!

Dear André,

It is with the greatest pride that your mother and I congratulate you upon your successful completion of the Masters of Law program at Georgetown University Law Center.

Your outstanding scholarly endeavors throughout these years have meant so much to us. Each time you set an academic goal, you exceeded it. We cannot express enough how heartening it is to see you succeed in every way.

We are most happy that, among all the possible options you had, you selected Georgetown University Law Center and that decision has turned out to be as wonderful as you had wished. We hope that in addition to learning so much you have made life-long friends from all over the world. Also, we hope that you take away from your experience the communication and leadership skills that will ensure your success for the future.

Congratulations

Dad and Linda

To H. Carl Moultrie III:

We are so very proud to have watched your progress, often from the sidelines, occasionally offering advice, recognizing you could plot your way with only our moral and financial help, realizing after all that the accomplishments are really your own, and always feeling we are so very grateful you are our son. We wish you better than for ourselves and that you will complete each layer or future accomplishments with the proper recite of humility, pride and good spirit.

Congratulations, with love.
